

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 269.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1900.

TWO CENTS

THREE EAST END TRAIN JUMPERS

Called on Mayor W. C. Davidson
Last Evening and Told How

WERE ASSESSED $5.60 EACH

Now Trying to Figure How Many Rides to Pittsburg They Could Have Got For That Amount.

CHILDS' SQUABBLE WAS SETTLED

Frank Cato, John Aber and Frank Aull are a trio of East End young men that called on Mayor Davidson last night and furnished some cash to keep the police department of the city in good shape.

The three young men delight in jumping on freight trains even though they know that the railroad company have decided objections to such action and they are also in danger of losing their lives. Officer Wilson had the pleasure of seeing them take a free ride the other day and he notified them to call on the mayor and settle for their short jaunt. It cost them each $5.60 and they are now trying to figure how many rides to Pittsburg they could have had for the amount and have arrived at the conclusion that it is cheaper in the long run to ride on passenger trains and in the regular way.

Mayor Davidson yesterday afternoon investigated the Tony Vitalie-Otto Ivers case. The affair was only a children's squabble and Ivers had a lump on his leg, the result of being hit with a stone. The children were told to go home and be good.

There has been a great deal of complaint in regard to the school children making a play ground out of Fourth street, between Washington and Union streets, between bells. An officer will see that the small boys behave themselves hereafter. There has been no objection to the boys having legitimate fun and the complaints are only in regard to them annoying pedestrians and residents.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS.

The Seats in the First U. P. Church
Will Be Raised.

The trustees of the U. P. church, at a meeting last night, decided upon a number of improvements to be made on the building. The seats will be raised in the audience room. Chairman Kerr will have plans drawn and will receive bids for the work.

A SOCIAL SESSION.

Supreme President Entertained by the Local Order, Sons of St. George,
Last Evening.

The Sons of St. George held an interesting social meeting in their rooms last evening in honor of John Kenworthy, of Pittsburg, supreme vice president of the order. The program was composed of songs and recitations and an address by Mr. Kenworthy.

He Caught Suckers.

An East Market street fisherman a few days ago went to Fredericktown

for the purpose of catching bass. When he returned home he told his friends that he had been very successful and during his day's fishing had landed 12 bass. There came near being a grand rush for Fredericktown, but the fishermen discovered in time that those supposed bass were all suckers.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

Conservative and Well Posted Citizens
Commend the News
Review.

"Editor News Review—You have the warm thanks of very many good citizens for your condemnation of the men who are acting as graveyard ghouls in the vicinity of the old graveyard. I am in a condition whereby I am fully posted in regard to the matter at issue, and your denunciations should be even hotter than you have made them. Outside of the hauling away of graves in defiance of law, and the consequent crumbling away of the embankment and the exposure of coffins and skeletons, the old graveyard has been made the headquarters of men and women who are apparently lost to all sense of shame or decency, and a detective, had he been assigned to quiet duty at the place or point designated, could easily have obtained proof of bad conduct on the part of some persons who hold their heads high in this vicinity, and an astounding phase of evil and evil practices would have been brought to light. My neighbors and myself are tired of this condition of affairs, and we appeal to Mayor Davidson for relief. It is easy to say, why don't you prefer charges in person, and then the authorities will act. Do you believe that you would delight in opening up such procedure? Possibly you might change your mind in this particular, were you cognizant of the facts in the case, and of the identity of the parties you would be compelled to do battle against. Mayor Davidson and Marshal Thompson can easily discover, if they so desire, that I have given no false alarm. The conduct of some of the well-known residents of East Liverpool has simply been abominable and outrageous in connection with this trysting place, and it is high time that a halt shall be called on all such people, no matter what their position in society may be.

CITIZEN."

JOSEPH H. SMITH.

A Well Known Smith Ferry Resident Died Yesterday Morning.
Funeral Tomorrow.

Joseph H. Smith, of Smith's Ferry, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. His wife died last November. Mr. Smith leaves a family of nine children. Funeral will take place tomorrow at 2 o'clock, at the Glasgow Presbyterian church, Rev. Crowe officiating. Interment will be made in the Georgetown cemetery.

HEISLER-BENCE & CO.

Our Young Townsmen Have Been in Business Just One Year Today.

These enterprising young shoe merchants have been in business just one year today as a firm, and they have just cause for pride in the success they have attained. Good goods, fair prices and courteous treatment of the public at large tells the story.

Returned Home.

George Hamilton returned yesterday after spending several days in Pittsburg at the dog show.

COUNCIL TO HOLD SECRET SESSION

To Hear and Consider Claims For Damages Presented by Property Owners.

WILL BE A WISE INNOVATION

As Hereafter the City Solicitor
Will Not Have to Give Away
the City's Side.

AND WILL DISCOURAGE SUITS.

The new council has adopted a system in regard to damage cases that will meet with the approbation of very many people in the city.

It will be the policy in the future to not make any of the damage, actions public and all claims of the kind will be referred to the finance committee and action taken on them in executive session of the council.

By this method, should council determine to fight a claim, their side of the case will not be given to the plaintiffs before the trial and the public will know nothing of the opinion of the solicitor in the matter until after the case is disposed of in court. By the old method of disposing of damage claims he solicitor was compelled to tell his opinion of the case in open council, and if he thought the city had a weak case he said so and the plaintiffs got the benefit of his opinion. It is also thought the new rule will assist greatly in settling cases.

It is also argued that every time a damage claim against the city is filed and settled it encourages more claims to be filed and the city will get rid of many actions by settling the cases out of open council.

A GOOD MOVE.

The New Policemen Are Compelling
the Loafers to Keep on the Outside of Sidewalks.

The new policemen are making every effort in their power to keep the loafers from blocking up the sidewalks and their watchword is "move on." Another thing they are doing is to notify all persons to keep boxes off the sidewalks as far as possible. The orders are being obeyed and as a result the appearance of the sidewalks in the evening is almost a revelation to parties who are not aware of the new state of affairs.

STARTED WORK.

Water Works Department is Having Trouble Securing Laboring Men.

The work of putting in the new main on Fourth street has commenced and it will take at least two weeks to finish the work unless the department is able to secure more men than they have at present. The department has discovered that workmen are very scarce in the city.

A Case for Miller.

Had the humane officer been in the vicinity of the Horn switch early yesterday morning he would have had a case of cruelty to prosecute and would have had no trouble in convicting the party. An inhuman driver with a small team and overloaded wagon were the chief characters. The man was not known to the party who witnessed his actions or a charge would have been filed.

WEDDINGS.

Well Known Young Couple Will Be
sell This Evening.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Stanley and Howard C. Walters, of Calcutta road, will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents on Trentvale street. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Walter Mansell, of Salem. The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in a new house near Riverside cemetery.

Last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Kinsey, of No. 261 Broadway, Miss Sarah E. Glenn and Cornelius B. Sheehan were married by Dr. Clark Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan will make their home in this city.

This morning at Salineville Miss Anna Stacy Boyle and John Murray were married by Rev. McMahon. Miss Boyle was formerly a resident of this city and is well known here. The young couple will reside in Beaver Falls.

QUIT CLAIM DEED

Given by Thompson Heirs to Christian Church Property on Elm Street to Erect Parsonage.

The Thompson heirs have agreed to give to the Christian church of this place a quit claim deed to the property on Elm street, formerly occupied by the church. The congregation intend to erect a parsonage on the property to cost between $1,600 and $2,000. Work is to commence on the building within the next 10 days.

It has been impossible for Rev. J. W. Gorrell to secure a house since he came here and his family is now residing in New Philadelphia.

MONKEY AND PARROT TIME

This is the Character of the Entertainment Participated in by Newspaper Stockholders.

Late issues of the Canton News Democrat and Lisbon Patriot demonstrate the fact that the stockholders of the News Democrat have been indulging in a monkey and parrot time, and a former townsman of East Liverpool is excoriated in a manner which would cause a modest man's blushes to vie in roseate hue with the morning sunshine. The left-handed compliments to the aforesaid townsman should be read personally to be fully appreciated.

Married at Beaver.

Ingram Sebring, formerly a resident of East End, and Miss Isabella Brandon were married yesterday afternoon at Beaver. Mr. Sebring is employed as a printer at the Oliver China pottery at Sebring, and Mrs. Sebring is a well known young lady of this city.

Next Saturday.

The new telephone company have tested out at least 100 phones in the city and will have a number of their phones in working order by next Saturday.

Has Chicken Pox.

Freda, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Criss McConnell, is ill at their home on Sixth street with the chicken pox.

NEWS OF THE PROBATE COURT.

Lisbon, April 26.—(Special)—In the case of Margaret McCaffrey vs. Ellen McCaffrey a journal entry was taken today showing that Margaret McCaffrey is entitled to a dower interest in two small tracts of land in Leetonia. Margaret McCaffrey was married to James J. McCaffrey October, 1872, and in 1892 she was divorced from him by reason of his aggression, and was granted $700 alimony. He afterward married Ellen McCaffrey, the defendant in this case, who claims she loaned him the $700 to pay the first wife's alimony; that the property in Leetonia, which is all he had, is not worth more than $1,100, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to dower, but the court found otherwise, and the property will be sold at sheriff's sale and the plaintiff paid her dower interest.

Superintendent Rayman has returned from Columbus, where he was called by the illness of his mother. His mother is seriously ill with pneumonia.

McCarron Has Some.

A list of eight persons who are delinquent in their taxes has been placed in the hands of Justice McCarron by Collector Elliott.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

More building is being done in the old Boyce orchard at present than in any other part of the suburb. The foundations for two houses to be built by C. E. Macrum have been finished. The 10-room residence of George Buxton, jr., is about completed, as is also the house being erected by Mr. Wright. The foundation for one of the small houses being built by Mr. Buxton is about finished and excavating has started on two others. Harry Harris started excavating for another six-room house this morning.

Yesterday morning Benton Grosshans received a rooster from a soldier stationed at the Jefferson barracks, in Missouri. It was sent there from a soldier now in Porto Rico and a friend of Mr. Grosshans immediately forwarded it to this city. It is a little larger than a Bantam chicken.

R. N. Logan Tuesday evening pleasantly entertained a number of his friends at his home on First avenue. Some of the young people who attended the affair missed the last car and walked to their homes down town, while some others waited on the midnight train.

There is a slight change for the better in the condition of Oscar Michael, of Mulberry street.

Councilman John L. Arnold, of First avenue, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the death of his mother at her home near Marietta. Old age was the cause of her death. The funeral services will be held Saturday and Mr. Arnold expects to leave this morning for the old home.

W. S. Snowden, a carpenter employed on one of the new houses being built in the Wise addition, had a piece of saw dust fly in his eye. A physician extracted the piece of wood, but the eye is swollen almost twice its normal size.

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. Spearhouse, of First avenue, is very ill, threatened with pneumonia.

Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derringer, is under the care of a physician.

The regular quarterly conference of the Second M. E. church will be held next Saturday evening. Rev. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the M. E. conference, officiating. A meeting of the official board of the church will be held the same evening.

Chief Morley spent several hours at the East End fire station yesterday afternoon.

Dick Richards, of Tarentum, has opened a tin and plumbing shop on First avenue. He is the first person to open this kind of a store in the suburb.

A fence is being built around the lawn in front of the office of the Laughlin pottery plant No. 2. This is the only pottery in the city with a lawn.

Mrs. Dodds, of Beaver, has commenced the erection of a seven-room frame dwelling at the corner of First avenue and Walnut alley. It will be modern in every particular.

The household effects of George Malin were brought to the suburb yesterday afternoon from the city.

Dr. W. E. Mowen and Robert McArthur, who have been in Cleveland for several days on business, returned to the suburb yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Gibbons and Edward Kennedy, of West End, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Oakland by Rev. Edwin Weary.

SOUTH SIDE.

At a meeting of the Republican executive committee held at New Cumberland Tuesday is was decided to hold the primaries on May 26. Senator and congressman will be voted for direct and allowed to choose their own delegates. Judges Campbell and Archer made addresses at the meeting.

Johnson and Duff, the oil men, were in Chester on business yesterday.

One gang of the striking Italian workmen returned to work on the sewer today.

Jesse Allison, who is taking treatment for rheumatism at Mt. Clemens, Mich., is expected home in a few days.

Harper Ralston, of Chester, has announced his candidacy for assessor of Hancock county. He attended the meeting of the executive committee at New Cumberland yesterday.

Tom and J. C. Cunningham attended a sale near Fairview yesterday.

Five of the 30 houses of the Smith contract are under roof. They are located on Neptune avenue.

The Free Methodist church will be repapered next week.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Dick Johnson Tuesday evening. They will serve a dinner at the Rock Spring grounds in the near future. The next meeting will be at Mrs. S. F. Rose's in two weeks.

Robert Marshall commenced the erection of a residence on Indiana avenue yesterday.

Irwin Bros., who have the Wellsville sewer contract, were in the Southside on business yesterday.

The main line of the Panhandle railroad has been extended as far as the machine shop.

The brick wheelers working on the Taylor, Smith & Lee pottery went on a strike yesterday. They demand a raise of from $1.75 to $2 per day. The hod men and bricklayers were also obliged to quit work. About 12 men went out.

The Mechanics have issued invitations for a dance to be given in their hall on May 9.

The Chester base ball club at a meeting last evening, elected Edward Bennett manager and Erastus Phillips captain. A practice game will be played with a picked nine at Rock Spring park Saturday afternoon.

Miss Crill has been spending the week in Hookstown looking after matters connected with the new Free Methodist church being erected at that place.

PIONEER NEWSPAPER MAN.

Surprised at the Growth and Vim of East Liverpool as a Business Town.

ExMayor John W. Northrup, of Salem, now right of way agent of the new telephone company, was in town yesterday on business and made the News Review a pleasant call. Mr. Northrup is an old newspaper man, having started the Salem Daily News, the first daily in that town. Later he was editor of the Salem Herald. He had not been to East Liverpool for several years and was astounded at the growth of the city. Said he: "You can't turn around a corner without running against a pottery, but they're mighty good things to have around." He said the appearance of the city impressed him with the correct belief that East Liverpool was one of the most hustling cities of its size anywhere.

Started for St. Louis.

Fred Gibbs was started this morning to his home in St. Louis, where it is thought he will regain his health. Dr. Hamilton collected $7.50 and gave it to him to assist him on his journey.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

The Stock Market Was, in a Large Measure, Confined to Sugar—The Other Features.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The stock market was in large part confined to Sugar Wednesday. Feverish and violent fluctuations kept affairs so unsettled that the operators hesitated to make ventures and the volume of dealings fell to small proportions.

Sugar was sold as low as 108 in the morning on supposed indications of fresh vigor in the trade war, and in the afternoon it got up to 115½. It closed at a net gain of 2½. The general market sold off after the opening in sympathy with the break in Sugar, which effectively dominated the tone of the market all day. When Sugar rebounded the room traders all turned to the bull side and kept prices up on a small volume of dealings. There were movements in special stocks designed to help on an advance, notably in Missouri Pacific, Pennsylvania, Wabash preferred and the grangers, but it was noticeable that the buying demands showed a marked falling off on any advances. Buying orders came in on the early declines, but later in the day the market continued dull.

The introduction in congress of a resolution for a committee to investigate the steel and wire episode and the New York Stock exchange may have had some influence in the late reaction. The announcement of a small engagement of gold for export to Europe had very little influence. The gold, which amounted to $500,000, is believed to be destined for Paris.

Discounts in London were slightly easier, but money in New York also showed further relaxation, loans for 60 to 90 days being quoted at 3 per cent, and four to six months at 3½ per cent on mixed collateral. The gain by the banks from the sub-treasury since last Friday already amounts to over $2,000,000. But the sub-treasury's debit balance at the clearing house fell below a million dollars for the first time in several weeks, except when some special operation intervened.

The bond market was rather quiet and irregular. Total bond sales, par value, $1,680,000.

United States 5s declined ¼ in the bid price.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The grain and provisions markets were strong Wednesday, the former helped principally by higher cables and a good export demand. Wheat closed ¾¢ higher, corn 1½¢ to 1½¢ better, and oats ½¢ improved. The market for hog product at the close was from 7½¢ to 15¢ higher.

DOOMS MAIL TUBE SERVICE.

The Action of the House May Ruin it—Due to the Scandalous Charges Made by Mr. Moody.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The house put its heel upon the pneumatic mail tube service now in operation in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and if its action stands the whole service will be crushed out. The postoffice committee has recommended an increase of the appropriation for this service from $225,000 to $725,000. The proposed increase was attacked by the appropriations committee under the leadership of Mr. Moody (Mass.) with such vigor and success that in the end the house voted, 87 to 50, to strike the entire appropriation from the bill. Mr. Moody created a sensation by the manner in which he assailed the methods of the pneumatic tube company and the direct charge that a former member of congress, who was a member of the appropriations committee, had been a holder of the stocks and bonds of the company. He declined to disclose the gentleman's name.

He added to the scandal by charging that a block of stock had been sent as a New Year's gift to a near relative of another member of congress, but, to the credit of the member, he said the dishonoring gift had been returned to the sender by the next mail. Although the tube service was highly commended by other members, these revelations transformed the sentiment of the house, which has several times voted for the tube service, into a decisive majority against its continuation in any form.

AGREED TO HAWAIIAN BILL.

Senate Passed the Agricultural Appropriation Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—After a brief debate the senate agreed to the conference report on the Hawaiian civil government bill, the provisions relating to the right of franchise and imprisonment for debt having been amended to conform to the ideas of the senate. The agricultural appropriation bill was passed, carrying a little over $3,000,000. The Alaskan civil government bill was under consideration for an hour, but no

Sixteenth Century Apples.

Apples be so divers of form and substance that it were infinite to describe them all. Some consist more of aire then water, as sour puffs called Mala pulmonea; others more of water then wind, as sour Castaras and Pome waters. To be short, all apples may be sorted into three kinds, sweet, soure and unsavory. Sweet apples ease the cough, quench thirst, cure melancholly, comfort the heart and head, especially if they be fragrant and odoriferous, and also give a laudable nourishment. Soure apples hinder spitting, straiten the brest, gripe and hurt the stomach, encrease phlegm and weaken memory.

Sweet apples are to be eaten at the beginning of meat, but soure and tart apples at the latter end. All apples are worst raw, and best baked or preserved.

Philip of Macedonia and Alexander, his son, from whom perhaps a curious and skilful herald may derive our Lancashire men, were called Philomeli apple lovers because they were never without apples in their pockets. Yea, all Macedonians, his countrymen, did so love them that having near Babylon surprised a fruiterer's boy they strived for it that many were drowned.—Dr. Thomas Moffett in 1575.

Ruskin's Collars.

A prophet indeed has no honor in his own country. An English gentleman, who had gone to Brantwood on an outing tour, finding himself in need of books in order to beguile a heavy hour or two, stepped into a bookstore of Ruskin's village and asked the lady attendant if she had any of the thinker's books. "Yes," she replied. "There were some, but they were not often asked for."

Having obtained the book he desired he asked her what she thought of the great critic and teacher. Her ideas of Ruskin's personality were very vague, however, and she excused her ignorance on the ground that the people about there did not seem to trouble much about him. As for herself, she only knew him as "the old gentleman who only had a clean collar once a week."

DOG QUESTION IS A PUZZLER

Mayor Davidson Receives on an Average of Three or Four Complaints a Day.

ANOTHER CARDENDALE DOG

Causes Some Alarm and the People Want It Killed as Soon as Possible.

SMITH SAYS DISSECT ANIMALS.

The Gardendale people are still excited over the dog question and not a day passes that the mayor does not receive three or four complaints in regard to canines that are acting strange.

Last night a man named Shingleton said a dog belonging to a person named Caudles was acting strange and he wanted it killed. No action has been taken in this case, but the animal will be located as soon as possible. Councilman J. T. Smith thinks the dog should be penned up if it is not dead and developments awaited. If it is dead he thinks it should be dissected and the cause of the complaint discovered if possible. The mayor agrees with him, as he can see no other way to settle the question as to whether the animals are mad and he is getting awful tired of the numerous complaints that are being filed with him.

The afflicted animals seem to have no control over their hind quarters and often stop to take a rest. When they start off again they begin snapping and yelping, and naturally every person with whom they come in contact with give them a wide berth.

Last night Henry Welch made complaint against a Grant street dog owned by John Walters. Davidson killed it this morning.

It has been suggested that the only way out of the difficulty is for council to pass an ordinance compelling the people of the city who own canines to pay a license fee of $1 per year to the mayor and put a collar on the dog to which shall be attached the license number of the animal. Any dog found on the street without the collar shall be gathered in by a dog catcher and taken to city hall, where it shall be kept for 48 hours in order to give the owner time to appear and claim it. If he does appear in that time he shall pay a fine for permitting his dog to run loose or the animal shall be killed.

BUILDING INSPECTOR.

The Ordinance Died With the Old Council, But Will be Taken Up By the New.

The building inspector ordinance introduced by ex-Councilman Cain died with the old council, but it is expected that some member of the new council will take the matter in charge and bring it before the new council. The majority of the council think the inspector would be a good thing, but they are fogged as to where the money would come from for his pay.

FAR AWAY FROM HOME.

George Woolley, Who Came Here After Work, Died in Pittsburg Yesterday Morning.

A Pittsburg paper of last evening says:

"George Woolley, 60 years old, died at 10:40 a. m. today at the General hospital at Marshalsea. Woolley was a native of England and only arrived in this country January 25. He was a traveling salesman and had worked for several firms in England. After coming to this country he secured a position with a firm in East Liverpool, O. On April 17 Woolley was taken sick at the St. James hotel, at Ninth street and Liberty avenue, and was removed to the hospital at Marshalsea. He had $103, which he deposited with the department of charities to pay his expenses. A wife and son living in England survive him. Death was due to consumption and he was at the city home only eight days."

Rev. Edwin Weary, of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, left last evening for Pittsburg, where he conducted the funeral services over the remains this morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was made this morning.

CIGARETTES.

Chicago Business Men Wont Employ Boys Who Smoke Them.

East Liverpool boys addicted to the habit of smoking cigarettes should take warning from the following from the New York Tribune:

"Merchants, manufacturers and professional men in Chicago who employ boys are combining to refuse applications for work from all lads under 16 who confess to the cigarette habit. Deceit on the part of the boy avails but little, since the fingers are carefully examined for the sign manual of the nicotine. As for the result, one boy recently admitted that at none of the 10 places to which he had gone for work in one week had the question as to whether he smoked cigarettes been omitted."

ON THE PROGRAM.

East End Ladies are Taking Part in a Sunday School Convention.

Mrs. J. T. Michael, of the Second Presbyterian church, is on the program at the county Sunday school convention in session at Salineville today. Mrs. D. Young, of the same congregation, is also in attendance as a delegate.

Improving the Train Service to Pittsburg and Cleveland via Pennsylvania Lines.

New Pullman parlor cars have taken the place of the parlor cars running on trains Nos. 337 and 338, between Pittsburg and Cleveland over the Pennsylvania lines. The new cars are the latest pattern turned out by the Pullman company and are finished and furnished in a substantial manner. They have roomy and comfortable revolving arm chairs, wide plate glass windows, commodious smoking apartment and a large retiring room for ladies. This room is fitted up with dresser and plate glass mirror. The new cars leave East Liverpool for Cleveland at 2:49 p. m. and for Pittsburg at 7:04 p. m., central time, week days.

ATTRACTIVE SUMMER RESORT.

Winona Lake on the Pennsylvania Lines.

Rest, recreation, entertainment and instruction, amid delightful surroundings and congenial company, are the attractions offered by Winona Lake, the pretty resort on the Pennsylvania lines in Northern Indiana.

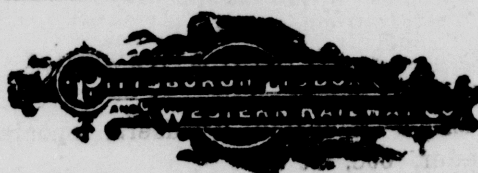

This resort is the site of the Winona assembly and summer school, and is annually visited by many persons who are strengthened in mind by the excellent facilities for educational work, and invigorated in body by the health-giving influences for which Winona Lake is famous.

May 15 marks the opening of the season for 1900, and commencing that date excursion tickets to Winona Lake will be on sale via Pennsylvania lines. For particular information on the subject of rates and time tables apply to ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines, or to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa. Information about attractions at Winona Lake, entertainment, the summer school sessions, etc., will be furnished in reply to inquiries addressed to Mr. S. C. Dickey, secretary, Winona Lake, Ind.

Low Rates to Cincinnati via Pennsylvania Lines.

May 7 and 8 for People's party national convention, low rate round trip non-transferable excursion tickets will be sold to Cincinnati via Pennsylvania lines; valid returning May 12, inclusive.

The Alliance Star speaks of the new state committeeman from this district as "V. Scharp." Such is fame.

Quay has lost his seat in the senate but he hasn't lost his grip on Pennsylvania politics, judging by yesterday's state convention.

Allen O. Myers says that "even if Bryan had a million majority he wouldn't be seated." People who talk like that should either be in the asylum or the penitentiary.

Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin day enthusiastically endorsed the ad-

PRESIDENT MARSHALL.

Of city council, will confer a favor on conservative and law-abiding citizens
if he will use the influence of person
and position in calling a halt on the hauling away of sand and gravel from the old graveyard site. Offenders, no matter who they be, must be taught that they cannot so act with impunity.

"WORDS OF PRAISE."

Read article under above head in another column. The party signing himself "citizen" is well and favorably known in East Liverpool, and he will back up what he asserts. The law should cover, with a stern hand,

the outrages being perpetrated in and about the old graveyard.

A WISE RULE.

While it will deprive the newspapers of a good deal of news, the action of council in deciding to hereafter consider damage claims against the city in secret session, is a wise one,
and one that should have been taken years ago. Heretofore the city solicitor was compelled to instruct council regarding the city's side of damage suits in open session, often when the person suing the city and his attorney
were present to profit by the premature disclosure of the city's defense.
This will now be stopped.

BROKE HIM DOWN.

One of the brightest boys in the city of East Liverpool, brainy and intelligent, has been literally ruined
in consequence of the use of the accursed cigarettes, and has been compelled to leave our public schools.
The man who sells or gives your boy
a cigarette is a scoundrel, and the law should be invoked against him.
The legislators who permit the sale
of the nasty, vicious things, is either a blockhead or a tool. It is high time that the parents of the land, and all who are interested in our coming young manhood, shall take a decided stand against the curse.

"GOD'S RESERVE FORCES."

The Above Was the Subject Discussed
by Evangelist MacGregor
Last Night.

A deeply interested audience was present at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. The evangelist portrayed, in eloquent and forcible language, the wonderful, limitless power of the Divine Being. Reference was made to Daniel, showing how he obeyed God, rather than man; fearing no evil;
fearless of results; his but to obey
and abide the consequences; and the Master made Daniel's record the brightest on the pages of biblical history. A magnificent soldier in the army of the Lord. Many other instances were mentioned, showing how God has always stood by those who trust and obey him.

today, but will address a meeting in
Y. M. C. A. hall the coming Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, and will speak in the same place next Sabbath, at 3
and 8 p. m. You are invited.

MONTHLY REPORT.

The Township Trustees Expended
$123.80 During the Month of April.

The township trustees have not completed their monthly report and
it shows that they expended $40.95
of the county funds and $82.85 of the township funds. The money was principally expended in caring for the sick, and the trustees expect a falling off
during May. In the month of April
last year they expended $80.52 county funds and $131.88 township.

A Kansas Blizzard.

"When a real Kansas blizzard starts," said a native of the state, "the snow at first is usually soft and fine
and comes down with an ominous
quiet. Then it increases in volume, and a wild wind hurls it along. It is blinding and enveloping, and, aside from being freezing cold, one cannot but lose his way. The storm sometimes lasts two or three days. When one of these blizzards comes up, the farmer who wants to get from his farmhouse to the stable or milkhouse takes a cord and starts for the stable or milkhouse, as it may be, even if it is only 50 yards off. He seldom makes it the first time, and the cord is to keep him from getting lost and wandering in the snow. Sometimes the people stand in the door and beat a tin can for a signal to any one who may be out in the storm, but this is of little use, as the noise of the wind is so great that it drowns almost every other sound.

"I know of a case of a man who got lost going from his stable to the house,
so swiftly and blindly did the storm whirl down upon him. He stumbled over the entrance to a cyclone cellar
and crawled in there and dropped the door after him to keep out the snow.
The snow fell faster and faster and buried the door so deeply that when it was all ended and he tried to open it he found it impossible. His family searched the country around for him,
and it was not until the snow had melted and gone and some one happened
to go into the cyclone cellar that he was found there."—New York Tribune.

Vest Was Committed.

"I remember well once when Joe Blackburn and I were on the same committee," said a senator. "It was during a Democratic administration, and there had been a good deal of bother trying to get the secretary of agriculture to agree to a certain thing, and Blackburn had been sent to talk him over to the committee's plan.
In fact, the whole cabinet had been difficult to deal with. When Joe came back, several of us were assembled in the committee room, among us Senator Vest, who was sunk dejectedly in the depths of an armchair. Some one asked:

"Well, Joe, did you succeed?"

"Succeed?" he echoed. Then he began to tramp up and down, fuming
and fussing. Finally he broke out:

"Of all the obstinate things in the shape of a cabinet officer I ever encountered, commend me to J. Sterling Morton! Don't you agree with me,
Vest?"

"Vest roused up slowly and answered:

"I'm sorry, Joe, but I am committed to Hoke Smith."

"It was the funniest thing I ever heard," continued the senator, "and our bill was never even reported."—
Saturday Evening Post.

What He Would Have Said.

In a complicated criminal case an old land surveyor was subpoenaed to give his professional opinion in the matter.
As the proceedings were about to begin he asked permission to say a few words, but was called to order sternly
by the judge, who told him to wait till he was questioned. The case then proceeded. A host of witnesses were examined, and even the prisoner frequently was called upon to make a statement.

After a couple of hours the judge
said to the old surveyor, "Now, sir,
we shall be glad to hear what you have to say on the whole case."

The witness stood up and replied:
"I only wished to remark awhile ago that I am quite deaf in my left ear and rather hard of hearing in the right. I was merely going to ask if I might be allowed to sit immediately in front of the witnesses and the prisoner. Up to now I have not heard a single word of the proceedings."—London Telegraph.

Spanish Proverbs.

Proverbs uncomplimentary to the fair sex are common in Spain. "A woman, like a pavement, should be well trampled on to be kept in order." "A woman is like a candle. Twist her neck if you wish her to be good." "Beware of a bad woman, and do not trust
a good one." "Crying in a woman and limping in a dog is all a sham." "A cock crows on his own dunghill, but hens cackle everywhere" (this in reference to the supposed garrulousness
and inquisitive disposition of the sex);
"Show me a magpie without a spot
and I will show you a woman without a fault." In English counterparts are not wanting, for example:

A woman, a dog and a walnut tree—
The more you beat them the better they be.

Mothers-in-law and stepmothers
come in for a good deal of sarcasm.
Some of the proverbs in regard to them
will not stand translation. Of a man who is accounted lucky they say, "If he fell from the roof of a house, he would fall on the top of his mother-in-law."—Chambers' Journal.

The Arch Destroyer.

"He is a mean, sneaking, underhand element, the moth is," protests
John Kendrick Baugs in The Woman's Home Companion. "Fire has a decent sense of the proprieties. Moths have none at all. When fire attacks you, it smokes and crackles and hisses and roars and lets you know in clarion tones that it has come. The moth steals upon you in the dead of night
and chews up your best trousers, gorges himself upon your wife's furticles, his palate with your swellest flannel golf shirt, munches away upon your handsomest rug, punches holes
in your best sofa cushions with his tusks and then silently folds his tent
and steals away without so much as a thank you for his meal. For unmitigated meanness commend me to the moth! Alongside of the moth and his nefarious work—even a book agent
pales into insignificance and an unpaid grocer's bill becomes an absolute pleasure."

Refrigerated Eggs.

Eggs become unwholesome when kept in refrigerators. A fungus forms in them which is easily found by the microscope, although it is not noticeable to the taste. The fungus constitutes a danger when we consider how many eggs are consumed by all classes
of society, and people of delicate constitutions ought to be particularly careful that they eat fresh and not kept eggs.

COUNCIL HAS RECONSIDERED

They Won't Get Out That Injunction Against the Railroad Company For a Few Days.

On the East End Station Pending a Satisfactory Settlement of the Affair.

COUNCIL GETS A PETITION.

That injunction against the Pennsylvania company will not be taken out for a few days at least. Solicitor Gaston prepared the papers and was all ready to go ahead with the case when he was notified by several members of council to let the matter rest for a few days to see if an agreement could not be reached with the company. In the meantime work on the station has been stopped.

Yesterday afternoon a petition was circulated in the East End, asking council not to take out the injunction. The petitioners gave three reasons, and they are as follows:

First—That no depot site in the neighborhood is obtainable, adjoining the railroad company property.

Second—That the company propose to make a driveway connecting with the alley occupied by them, around the rear of their building, for the use of the public, so that traffic will not be in any way interfered with.

Third—Because the location of the station on the site referred to is a necessity to the industries there adjoining on which that part of the town depends for its prosperity and growth.

The petition was signed by the National China company, the Homer Laughlin China company, Abner Martin, Puritan Land company, W. H. Campbell, East End Pottery company, James A. Martin, B. F. Harker, H. N. Harker, D. B. Harker, George Buxton, J. J. Bell, W. E. Baird, Potters Mining and Milling company, N. G. Macrum, William Erlanger. The signers own all the property adjoining the site of the new station.

He only calls on the business houses, so if there is any one using lights in private residences and wanting a first-class strong mantle, giving a 100-candle power light, leave your orders for Brown at Will Reed, druggist, as I will be here only a few days.

Behind the Scenes.

"A good many people," said a veteran stage manager the other day, "have an idea that beyond the scenes of a stage there is great fun and hilarity and that actors have a jolly sort of time between their appearances before the audience. The fact is a military camp during times of inspection is no more sedate than is the rear of any well regulated stage when the public in front of the footlights is being entertained. The shifting of scenes and the proper execution of an intricate play require all the thought that can be given them. All the men and women have all they can do to properly perform their parts. If a manager is a easy going man, caring little for discipline, he soon gets to the end of his career. You may be sure there is no business that is carried on in a more businesslike way than is the playhouse, and when the fun is on in the front those behind the scenes are carefully watching to see that no hitch occurs and that every one is ready to do his part at the proper time and does it properly when the time comes."—Washington Star.

HOW TO CATCH A COLD.

The Various Ways in Which It May Be Accomplished.

The various ways in which a cold may be brought on are thus described by Dr. J. H. Kellogg: "A little knife blade of air blowing in through a crack in a window upon some part of the body will chill that part, and the blood vessels of that region will become contracted, affecting somewhere in the interior of the body an area in reflex relation with this portion of the surface of the body.

"For instance, the blood vessels of the skin of the top of the shoulders and the chest are associated with the blood vessels of the lungs, so that whatever happens to the blood vessels of the skin of the shoulders and chest happens also to the blood vessels of the lungs. If there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the back of the neck, there will be a contraction of the blood vessels of the nose and throat, and if there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the top of the shoulders and the shoulder blades there will also be a contraction of the blood vessels of the lungs. When the influence of the cold is continued, this contraction is followed by congestion.

"When one puts his hands into cold water for a few minutes, they are first pale and then red. This is reaction. The longer the application and the more intense the degree of cold the greater will be the contraction and the congestion. So if the back of the neck is exposed for a long time to the influence of cold one is likely to have a cold in the nose and throat. If the shoulder blades and the tops of the shoulders are exposed, one is likely to take cold in the lungs and suffer from congestion of the lungs. If the cold is long continued, it may cause not only a congestion, but an inflammation of the nose or the lungs.

"So if the bottoms of the feet become wet or chilled a weakness of the bladder may result if there has ever been a trouble there or a weakness of the stomach if there has been a catarrh of that organ."—Good Health.

BABY'S PRETTY CURLS.

Pulled Them Off in a Car and Embarrassed Her Mother.

A well dressed woman with a beautiful baby in her arms attracted the attention of all the passengers on a Germantown car. Every one was fascinated by the baby's pretty and smiling face and particularly by two golden curls which hung down her cheeks.

After awhile the child became nervous and began to tug at one of the curls which protruded from her hood. The woman, presumably her mother, quickly stopped her, but a few moments later she looked out of the window. No sooner was her face turned than the child seized her bonnet with both hands and pulled it off. It offered little resistance, but to the astonishment of every one on the car the curls came with it, and the supposed golden haired baby showed that in reality its head was without the semblance of a hair.

The child swung the bonnet to and fro and laughingly held it up for the inspection of the other passengers. It was almost a minute before the woman turned around. When she saw what the baby had done, her face flushed, and without a word she picked up the child and walked sedately out of the car. When last seen, she was trudging down Spring Garden street with the baby tucked under her arm like a sack of oats, but still holding tightly to the bonnet and cooing, "See my pooty hair!"—Philadelphia Times.

CHIMNEY FIRES.

Why Salt is Commonly Used to Put Them Out.

In accounts of chimney fires it is common to read that the fire was extinguished by throwing salt down the chimney. Salt is used because there is liberated from it when it comes into contact with the fire a gas that within an inclosed space like a chimney is very effective in extinguishing fire. The primary purpose in throwing salt or anything else down a burning chimney is to dislodge the burning soot, chimney fires being caused by the ignition of the soot clinging to the inside of the chimney. Salt is used for this purpose not alone because of its peculiar effectiveness, but also because it is something available for the purpose that can commonly be found at hand in a house. It is thrown down the chimney in such a manner that it will rattle down the sides and by its weight knock down the soot and sparks clinging to the chimney's insides.

A bucket of sand has been put to the same use with good effect, and sometimes a scuttle of coal has been poured down the chimney, the coal burning about from side to side as it dropped and so doing its work effectively. Sometimes a brick is taken from the chimney itself and, tied to a clothesline, is hauled up and down the chimney, with the same result. At the hearth below or at the bottom of the chimney wherever the sparks may fall there is stationed a man with a pail of water to put out whatever fire may drop. Water is not played on a chimney fire from a hose because it is not necessary, and the water would do more damage than the fire.

The damage caused by a fire in a chimney when it is confined there is nothing or next to nothing. Left alone, however, a chimney fire might work its way into a building and so prove destructive, and therefore slight as they may be in themselves or as they might be in their consequences chimney fires are always put out and commonly in the manner described.—Exchange.

EAGLES AND THEIR PREY.

A Giant Bird Whose Race Has Happily Become Extinct.

There is at the present moment at the Natural History museum a model of the skull of an eagle so gigantic that the imagination can scarcely fit it into the life of this planet at all.

The whole head is larger than that of an ox, and the beak resembles a pair of hydraulic shears. Unlike most of the giant beasts, this eagle, which inhabited Patagonia, appears from its remains to have differed little from the existing species. Its size alone distinguishes it. The quills of the feathers which bore this awful raptor through the air must have been as thick as a walking stick and the webs as wide as car blades. It would have killed and torn to pieces creatures as large as a bison and whirled up into the sky and dropped into the rocks the gigantic carapaced animals of prehistoric Patagonia as easily as a modern eagle of California does the land tortoise on which it feeds.

Even today there are few carnivorous animals, whether birds or beasts, which have so wide a range of prey as the eagles. Like the kinged dragons of old story, they can ravage earth, air and sea and feed promiscuously on the denizens of all three elements. From serpents on the burning desert to seals on the everlasting ice, from monkeys in the tropical forests to marmots on the Alpine slopes, from dead sheep on highland hills to peacocks in the Indian jungles, no form of fish, fowl or fowl comes amiss to them.

and the young eagle, driven by the inexorable law of his race from the home where he was reared, finds a free breakfast table wherever he flies.—Cornhill Magazine.

Easily Settled.

They fell into conversation on the avenue street car, as men will to pass away the time, and when one of them happened to mention he was from Pittsburg the other turned to him with: "Pittsburg, eh? Dear me, but now singular!"

"How do you mean, sir?" was asked. "Why, I was in Pittsburg 21 years ago and lost 10 cents in a street car. I was thinking of the incident just before you spoke to me. I suppose you couldn't inform me whether the money was ever found, could you?"

"Why, yes; I believe I can. I found a dime in a street car about 21 years ago and have been looking for the owner ever since. Here it is. It must belong to you."

"Thanks. You are an honest man. Here's 2 cents to reward you."

The Pittsburg man pocketed the reward as the other pocketed the dime, and then they closed the incident.—Washington Post.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers. But the endorsement of East Liverpool's people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of an East Liverpool citizen.

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Botland, of Pittsburg, while visiting me, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; sometimes I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them, and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

HANNA MEN CHOSEN.

Administration Ticket Named at Columbus.

A BITTER FIGHT ON GROSVENOR.

Bushnell Then Tried to Prevent His Being Named as a Delegate, but Failed—Foraker, Nash and Dick the Other Delegates at-Large.

COLUMBUS, April 26.—The Republican state convention here was of national importance. The delegates and alternates-at-large are close personal, as well as political friends of the president, and the platform is just as it came from Washington, with the addition of the anti-trust resolution and the omission of the Porto Rican resolution.

The ticket named was as follows:
Secretary of State—Lewis C. Laylin.
Supreme Judge—John A. Shaver.
Board of Public Works—Charles A. Goddard.
State School Commissioner—L. D. Bonebrake.
Dairy and Food Commissioner—J. E. Blackburn.

Presidential Electors-at-large—Colonel Myron T. Herrick, General W. P. Orr.

Alternates-at-large—Hon. Charles Foster, Hon. Myron O. Norris, Hon. W. C. Brown, George A. Myers.

The above was the so-called "Hanna slate" on delegates and alternates-at-large, and it went through without any breaks. There was, however, opposition to Food Commissioner Blackburn because he was running for a third term and for other local reasons, and to General Grosvenor for delegate from the friends of ex-Governor Bushnell.

When former Governor Bushnell opposed the election of Hanna as senator three years ago, General Grosvenor wrote a letter to a former client, who was then an applicant for a pardon, and that letter was revived at this convention. Then there were others in the convention to whom the Bushnell men called attention to the fact that General Grosvenor was a delegate-at-large four years ago and that he had been a district delegate to national conventions ever since the Republican party had existed. At this convention they charged that he was more than the chairman of the committee on resolutions, that he had brought the platform with him, and had successfully resisted any material revision.

The efforts of the Bushnell men to substitute some one in place of Grosvenor made an unusually interesting scene. It was opened by Judge Gilbert H. Stewart, of Columbus, who had spent the night opposing General Grosvenor in the committee on resolutions, of which they were both members, but it reached its climax when J. Frank McGrew, ex-representative and son-in-law of former Governor Bushnell, was speaking on his amendment to strike out Grosvenor and insert Hanna. McGrew eulogized Hanna, whom he has heretofore opposed, and said the Democrats would make capital out of the action of the Republicans of the president's state if Senator Hanna was not made "one of the big four."

When Senator Hanna was finally called to the front of the platform, the speech of ex-representative McGrew caused the senator to proclaim emphatically, "What do I care what the Democrats say about me?" While the senator's speech was on local state affairs, especially on factional and personal preferences, it was delivered with more force and feeling than his address of the day before. In declining to be a delegate, he delivered a philippic against what he termed "expedients."

When Senator Hanna said he would not serve as a delegate there was a motion to strike out Grosvenor and insert Foster. The Bushnell men formerly had not been friendly to Charles Foster, ex-governor and ex-secretary of the treasury, but it was anybody to beat Grosvenor. Foster has in recent speeches made several thrusts at Hanna and Grosvenor, and when he stepped to the front of the platform he said he declined because he "would not want to break the excellent slate that had been brought to Ohio from Washington."

The resolution making Foraker, Nash, Grosvenor and Dick the delegates-at-large was offered by ex-Senator Massie, of Grosvenor's congressional district, and the Bushnell men charged that it was the Grosvenor plan to avoid balloting. As soon as this resolution was adopted, General Grosvenor offered a resolution just like it, by which the four alternates-at-large were also selected in a bunch, without any of the forms of presenting names or balloting.

General Dick and General Grosvenor

returned to Washington.

Governor Nash left for Boston and Senator Hanna for Cleveland. The latter will not leave for Washington until Saturday. The convention was unusually harmonious, with the exception of the personal fights made on Grosvenor and Blackburn, both of whom won.

Following is an abstract of the platform adopted:

The platform reaffirms at the beginning the declaration of principles made by the Republican party at St. Louis in 1866; declares that the Republican administration has restored prosperity to the country and that the United States is outstripping all the nations of the world in foreign trade. The resolutions endorse the "wise and patriotic administration of President McKinley, whose signal achievements in war and peace, in statesmanship and diplomacy, mark an epoch in the history of the nation and whose brilliant success in the highest and most important interests of the country, the uninterrupted continuance through another term of his great but uncompleted work.

"Confronting unprecedented requirements at home and unexampled responsibilities abroad, he has met them with a courage, fidelity and strength which have given him an enduring place in the confidence and affection of his countrymen.

Universal confidence is declared to have been reawakened and prosperity unparalleled reestablished. The administration is declared to have fixed the gold standard upon firm foundations of law and made the national currency larger in volume and sure in value, and "lifted the national credit to the highest plane any nation has ever reached." The platform continues:

"In the broader field of world duty and influence it has met an unavoidable war for humanity with unequalled vigor and success, has crowned the matchless triumph of our arms on sea and land with the courageous acceptance of its high and solemn obligations, has faithfully studied and sought equally the true honor of the nation and the greatest good of the peoples who have come under our flag, and has, through the wise use of expanded opportunity, led our country on pathways of greatness and renown.

"We reaffirm the principles in which the Republican party had its birth, and on which Abraham Lincoln was elected president, that the representatives of the people have full power over territory belonging to the United States, in harmony with and subject to the fundamental safeguards of our free institutions for liberty, justice and personal rights. We sustain the president and congress in exercising this power with due regard for the safety and welfare of the union, and with the most just, generous, humane and fraternal consideration for those over whom the authority of the nation is extended. We advocate for them free schools, full security for life, liberty and property, the most liberal measures and development of their agriculture and industry, and the largest degree of local self-rule for which they are fitted. We have faith in American patriotism, character and capacity, and we know that American government will extend the inestimable blessings of freedom, law and civilization to the peoples who are brought under our protection."

The "wisdom and the success with which President McKinley performed the duty imposed by the treaty of Paris," and the fortitude and heroism of the soldiers and sailors of the United States through whom it was performed, as well as the provisions of the treaty itself, are heartily approved. It is declared that sovereignty over the new possessions must not be repudiated, and that the "high purpose of its origin must be accomplished in the establishment of peace and order and the blessings of individual liberty among the people of the Philippine Islands."

Thanks and approbation are tendered to the Ohio delegation in congress, and legislation is favored looking to promotion of the United States merchant marine. The platform concludes:

"The Republican party of Ohio stands committed to legislative and executive opposition to the threatening combinations of capital that seek to restrict competition and stifle independent producers; we invite within our borders the capitalistic investments that are material to the industrial development of the state and the largest employment of labor, but we insist that injurious combinations shall be forbidden, and so-called trusts shall be so regulated from time to time and be so restricted to guarantee immunity from harmful monopoly and assure fair treatment and protection to all competing industries."

The platform strongly indorses the administration of Governor Nash and the last Ohio legislature, and declares for a uniform system of municipal government.

PLEDGED TO AID QUAY'S RE-ELECTION.

Action Taken by the Pennsylvania Republican Convention at Harrisburg—Elected Him as a Delegate.

HARRISBURG, April 26.—The Republican state convention cordially endorsed

the administration of President William McKinley and instructed the delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia to support his candidacy for re-nomination. The convention also declared in favor of the election of United States senators in the same manner that state officers are elected; endorsed Senator Penrose, the administration of Governor Stone and other state officials, and pledged "its hearty and cordial support of Colonel M. S. Quay for re-election to the United States senate."

The convention also nominated Senator E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and Galusha A. Grow, of Susquehanna county, and Robert H. Feederer, of Philadelphia, for congressmen-at-large. The endorsement of Colonel Quay was opposed by Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in the last legislature. Mr. Flinn explained that he was in sympathy with the platform in everything except this plank, and moved that it be stricken out. His motion was defeated, and the platform was adopted as reported from committee.

Those voting against Colonel Quay on the Flinn motion were the delegates from the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Allegheny districts; William M. Ely, of Bucks; Geo. W. Herne and James H. Smith, of Crawford; D. M. Phillips, of Greene; Robert H. Moore, Juniata; John Moiler, Lebanon; John D. Fornum, Daniel G. Harley and Stanley Finner, Luzerne; Johnson Muthersbaugh, Mifflin; J. H. Wagner, Northumberland; ten from Philadelphia, two from Warren, five from Washington, Charles P. Wolfe and John B. Anderson in Westmoreland and the five delegates in York. The delegates from the First and Second districts of Allegheny voted in the negative. Several delegates refrained from voting.

After roll call, Mr. Gilkison, of Bucks, was recognized. He nominated Henry W. Oliver, of Allegheny, for temporary chairman and W. S. Andrews and Charles A. Voorhees, temporary secretaries.

Mr. Oliver's mention of McKinley's name in his speech drew forth a hearty applause in spite of the feeling entertained for the president by Quay's followers, who charge him with the responsibility of Quay's defeat. Mr. Oliver's speech was rather lengthy, reviewing the successes of the Republican party and the present prosperous conditions, for which the party is directly responsible.

Later the organization was made permanent.

Mr. Durham presented and secured the unanimous adoption of the following list of delegates and alternates-at-large to the national convention and electors-at-large:

Delegates-at-large—Colonel M. S. Quay, of Beaver; John B. Steel, of Westmoreland; Frank Reeder, of Northampton; William Connell, of Lackawanna; B. W. Green, of Cameron; Charles A. Porter, of Philadelphia; Jas. Elverson, of Philadelphia; John E. Leisenring, of Luzerne.

Alternates-at-large—J. Preston Thomas, Chester; W. R. Rice, Warren; C. Barclay, Cameron; Edward A. Price, Delaware; M. E. Lilley, Bradford; W. C. Kreps, Franklin; Jesse L. Hartman, Blair; Dr. George Edward Reed, Cumberland.

Electors-at-large—Clarence Wolf, Philadelphia; Frank H. Buhl, Mercer; A. B. Roberts, Montgomery; W. O. Arnold, Clearfield.

The secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Hon. E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and he was declared the unanimous nominee.

Balloting then began for congressmen at large. Only one ballot was required, it resulting:

Feederer, 338.
Grow, 255.
Flood, 89.
Arnold, 40.

Feederer and Grow were declared the nominees. This ended the regular work of the convention, and Governor Stone then addressed the convention.

ALLEN O. MYERS' PREDICTION.

Declares Bryan Would Not Be Seated if Elected by a Million.

WICHITA, Kan., April 26.—Allen O. Myers, of Ohio, responding to a toast at the banquet of the Sunflower League, following William J. Bryan, created a mild sensation.

Mr. Myers said the country was "fast racing to destruction." Then, suddenly turning toward Mr. Bryan, the speaker exclaimed:

"You may be elected, sir, by 1,000,000 majority, but they will not permit you to take the presidential chair. Look at the fate of William Goebel. Men whose pastime is bribery find in murder an amusement. Ohio was bought in 1896, the country was bought; it will be bought again in 1900, and Mark Hanna's reward for it is a seat in the United States senate.

"The masses of the country will continue to permit the encroachments on the classes," concluded Mr. Myers. "until finally too late for a restoration of rights by the ballot. Then the sword and gun, violence, revolution—a new order of things."

ENDORSED THE ADMINISTRATION.

Convention of the Wisconsin Republicans Held at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, April 25.—The Republican state convention elected the following delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention, at Philadelphia:

Joseph B. Treat, of Monroe; H. August Lendtke, of Milwaukee; Isaac Stephenson, of Marinette, and James H. Stout, of Menominee.

The convention was characterized by harmony throughout. Resolutions, endorsing both the national and state administrations, were unanimously adopted.

H. C. Payne will undoubtedly be chosen at the Philadelphia convention to succeed himself as national committeeman for Wisconsin.

PRESIDENT LEAVES TODAY.

He, With Mrs. McKinley and Party, Will Depart for Washington This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, April 26.—President McKinley, after a brief visit with his relatives in this city, returned to Canton. His car, the Olympia, was attached to the regular southbound train on the Valley road, leaving Cleveland at 3:25 p. m. The president will remain in Canton until 4 o'clock today, when, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley, he will start for Washington.

Mrs. T. Twing Brooks, of Sewickley, Pa., wife of Vice-President Brooks, of the Pennsylvania railroad, came here this afternoon to visit Mrs. McKinley, and will go to her home tomorrow on the presidential train. Captain and Mrs. Lafayette McWilliams, of Chicago, are coming here today to join the presidential party in the trip to Washington. Mrs. McWilliams is Mrs. McKinley's cousin. The special train will leave here about 4 o'clock this afternoon and will reach Pittsburg in time to connect with the regular Washington train. Mrs. McKinley seems to be greatly enjoying her visit here, and friends say she seems to be in better health than usual. She took several extended drives about the city today.

FATAL SHOT FIRED BY A NON-UNIONIST.

Killed One Man and Wounded Two Others in a Labor Riot at Chicago—Others Are Injured.

CHICAGO, April 26.—In a riot between union and non-union men, which occurred at Racine and Wellington avenues, one man was instantly killed, another severely wounded, and six others sustained slight injuries.

The Dead.

Peter Miller, shot through the head by H. C. Baster and instantly killed.

The Injured.

John McGuire, shot in the right arm and right cheek by H. C. Baster; injuries severe, but not fatal.

Edward Yarranton, cut on head with brass knucklers.

Benjamin Bernard, cut on head with brass knucklers.

William Potgetter, bruised about head and body.

Louis Jenkins, cut about face and head.

James Gibbons, bruised by being struck with a club.

All were arrested by the police with the exception of Gibbons, who made his escape.

The fatal shot was fired by Baster, who is a superintendent employed by the Baker-Vawter Printing company, at 1102 and 1103 Mariana street, a non-union concern. The bullets which struck McGuire were also fired from the superintendent's weapon.

The killing was the outcome of three months' trouble with striking workmen.

Carter Enroute to Prison.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Oberlin M. Carter, once a captain in the United States corps of engineers, was a passenger on a parlor car of the Pennsylvania railroad train No. 7, southwestern express. In charge of an armed guard he is being taken to the military prison at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

One New Case of Plague.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The surgeon general of the marine hospital service has received a report from Surgeon Carmichael, in charge at Honolulu, under date of April 9. He says that since his report of March 31 one new case of plague has been discovered. The victim was a white girl and the case was fatal. The prospects, Dr. Carmichael says, are encouraging.

Instructed for Bryan.

CLAY CENTER, Kan., April 26.—The Populists' state convention called to select 84 delegates to the national convention at Sioux Falls instructed the delegates to vote solidly for William J. Bryan for president.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

WAS DISCUSSED.

nder Consideration by the Delegates at the Ecumenical Conference Held in New York City.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Bishop Dudley, f Kentucky, led the opening exercises the session of the Ecumenical Confer-ce. In Carnegie hall educational work was considered.

The Rev. Dr. W. T. A. Barber, head master of Ley's school, Cambridge, Eng-and, and William T. Harris, commissioner of education, both spoke at length on the subject, "The Place of Education in Christian Missions."

"The Necessity for Training Teachers" was discussed by the Rev. Dr. John Conklin, of the Bible mission school of Springfield, Mass.

These papers were followed by short discussions by those of the delegates who have been engaged in educational work at home and abroad.

Five sectional meetings were held.
At the Union Methodist church the general topic was that of "Wider Relations of Missions," at the Madison Avenue Reformed church, the topic was "Vernacular Literature," at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, "The Native Church and Moral Questions" was discussed; "Normal Training" was the subject at the Central Presbyterian church, and the "Medical Training of Nations" was discussed at Chamber Music hall, Carnegie hall.

Last night two central meetings were held, one at Carnegie hall, as usual, and one at the Central Presbyterian church.

BOERS MAY ESCAPE YET.

They Fled After the Siege of Wepener—
It Is Believed That the British Cannot Catch Them.

LONDON, April 26.—It is now apparent that the chances of Lord Roberts catching the retreating Boers in a net are very slender. The Boers have everywhere retired at the first presence of the British advance, and the hope that General Rundle would be able to induce them to remain at Dewetsdorp until they had been forced to fight or surrender has been disappointing.

No attempt was made to pursue the commandos retiring from Wepener after the siege was raised. Everything now depends upon the progress of General French's cavalry brigades, but they are entering a very difficult, hilly and practically unknown country.

The cavalry have already had a long march over heavy and sandy roads, and nothing is known regarding the condition of the horses. In any case, it is now a race between the Federals and the forces of General French and General Hamilton.

Three Burned to Death.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Three persons story tenement, 74 Forsyth street. The dead are: Hannah Liebowitz, 13 years old; Amelia Liebowitz, 11 years old, and Joseph Liebowitz, 6 years old.

She was the fond mother of a fine baby. But it was a crying baby. She unclothed it and looked for pins. Nothing was hurting it.

She looked to the baby's food. It was sweet and wholesome.
But the baby still cried and wailed. Then she called the doctor. He examined the child and said
"starvation."

"The child is crying for food." "But," said the mother, "it has all the food it will take." "The question of starvation" replied the doctor, "is not how much food is taken but how much is assimilated and goes to nourish the body."

Pain in the body is often only the outcry of starvation. You eat enough but the stomach is not doing its work, and the nervous system is starving. Put the stomach right and the pains will cease, together with the uncomfortable consequences of the condition. There is no medicine made which can equal Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the quickness of its action on the stomach. It cures diseases of the digestive and nutritive system, increases the action of the blood-making glands, and so induces a proper and perfect distribution of the necessary nourishment to blood and bone, nerve and muscle throughout the whole body. There is no alcohol, opium or other narcotic contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., "as I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken it. Prior to September, 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September, 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. Commenced in September, 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 269.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1900.

Called on Mayor W. C. Davidson
Last Evening and Told How

Now Trying to Figure How Many
Rides to Pittsburg They Could Have Got For That Amount.

CHILDS' SQUABBLE WAS SETTLED

Frank Cato, John Aber and Frank Aull are a trio of East End young men that called on Mayor Davidson last night and furnished some cash to keep the police department of the city in good shape.

The three young men delight in jumping on freight trains even though they know that the railroad company have decided objections to such action and they are also in danger of losing their lives. Officer Wilson had the pleasure of seeing them take a free ride the other day and he notified them to call on the mayor and settle for their short jaunt. It cost them each $5.60 and they are now trying to figure how many rides to Pittsburg they could have had for the amount and have arrived at the conclusion that it is cheaper in the long run to ride on passenger trains and in the regular way.

Mayor Davidson yesterday afternoon investigated the Tony Vitalie-Otto Ivers case. The affair was only a children's squabble and Ivers had a lump on his leg, the result of being hit with a stone. The children were told to go home and be good.

There has been a great deal of complaint in regard to the school children making a play ground out of Fourth street, between Washington and Union streets, between bells. An officer will see that the small boys behave themselves hereafter. There has been no objection to the boys having legitimate fun and the complaints are only in regard to them annoying pedestrians and residents.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS.

The Seats in the First U. P. Church
Will Be Raised.

The trustees of the U. P. church, at a meeting last night, decided upon a number of improvements to be made on the building. The seats will be raised in the audience room. Chairman Kerr will have plans drawn and will receive bids for the work.

A SOCIAL SESSION.

Supreme President Entertained by the Local Order, Sons of St. George,
Last Evening.

The Sons of St. George held an interesting social meeting in their rooms last evening in honor of John Kenworthy, of Pittsburg, supreme vice president of the order. The program was composed of songs and recitations and an address by Mr. Kenworthy.

He Caught Suckers.

An East Market street fisherman a few days ago went to Fredericktown

for the purpose of catching bass. When he returned home he told his friends that he had been very successful and during his day's fishing had landed 12 bass. There came near being a grand rush for Fredericktown, but the fishermen discovered in time that those supposed bass were all suckers.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

Conservative and Well Posted Citizens
Commend the News
Review.

"Editor News Review—You have the warm thanks of very many good citizens for your condemnation of the men who are acting as graveyard ghouls in the vicinity of the old graveyard. I am in a condition whereby I am fully posted in regard to the matter at issue, and your denunciations should be even hotter than you have made them. Outside of the hauling away of gravel in defiance of law, and the consequent crumpling away of the embankment and the exposure of coffins and skeletons, the old graveyard has been made the headquarters of men and women who are apparently lost to all sense of shame or decency, and a detective, had he been assigned to quiet duty at the place or point designated, could easily have obtained proof of bad conduct on the part of some persons who hold their heads high in this vicinity, and an astounding phase of evil and evil practices would have been brought to light. My neighbors and myself are tired of this condition of affairs, and we appeal to Mayor Davidson for relief. It is easy to say, why don't you prefer charges in person, and then the authorities will act. Do you believe that you would delight in opening up such procedure? Possibly you might change your mind in this particular, were you cognizant of the facts in the case, and of the identity of the parties who would be compelled to do battle against. Mayor Davidson and Marshal Thompson can easily discover, if they so desire, that I have given no false alarm. The conduct of some of the well-known residents of East Liverpool has simply been abominable and outrageous in connection with this trysting place, and it is high time that a halt shall be called on all such people, no matter what their position in society may be.

COUNCIL TO HOLD SECRET SESSION

To Hear and Consider Claims For Damages Presented by Property Owners.

WILL BE A WISE INNOVATION

As Hereafter the City Solicitor
Will Not Have to Give Away
the City's Side.

AND WILL DISCOURAGE SUITS.

The new council has adopted a system in regard to damage cases that will meet with the approbation of very many people in the city.

It will be the policy in the future to not make any of the damage actions public and all claims of the kind will be referred to the finance committee and action taken on them in executive session of the council.

By this method, should council determine to fight a claim, their side of the case will not be given to the plaintiffs before the trial and the public will know nothing of the opinion of the solicitor in the matter until after the case is disposed of in court. By the old method of disposing of damage claims he solicitor was compelled to tell his opinion of the case in open council, and if he thought the city had a weak case he said so and the plaintiffs got the benefit of his opinion. It is also thought the new rule will assist greatly in settling cases.

It is also argued that every time a damage claim against the city is filed and settled it encourages more claims to be filed and the city will get rid of many actions by settling the cases out of open council.

A GOOD MOVE.

The New Policemen Are Compelling
the Loafers to Keep on the Outside of Sidewalks.

The new policemen are making every effort in their power to keep the loafers from blocking up the sidewalks and their watchword is "move on." Another thing they are doing is to notify all persons to keep boxes off the sidewalks as far as possible. STARTED WORK.

Water Works Department is Having Trouble Securing Laboring Men.

The work of putting in the new main on Fourth street has commenced and it will take at least two weeks to finish the work unless the department is able to secure more men than they have at present. The department has discovered that workmen are very scarce in the city.

A Case for Miller.

Had the humane officer been in the vicinity of the Horn switch early yesterday morning he would have had a case of cruelty to prosecute and would have had no trouble in convicting the party. An inhuman driver with a small team and overloaded wagon were the chief characters. The man was not known to the party who witnessed his actions or a charge would have been filed.

WEDDINGS.

Well Known Young Couple Will Be
sell This Evening.

The marriage of Miss Bertha Stanley and Howard C. Walters, of Calcutta road, will take place this evening at the home of the bride's parents on Trentvale street. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Walter Mansell, of Salem. The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in a new house near Riverside cemetery.

Last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Kinsey, of No. 261 Broadway, Miss Sarah E. Glenn and Cornelius B. Sheehan were married by Dr. Clark Crawford. Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan will make their home in this city.

This morning at Salineville Miss Anna Stacy Boyle and John Murray were married by Rev. McMahon. Miss Boyle was formerly a resident of this city and is well known here. The young couple will reside in Beaver Falls.

QUIT CLAIM DEED

NEWS OF THE PROBATE COURT.

Lisbon, April 26.—(Special)—In the case of Margaret McCaffrey vs. Ellen McCaffrey a journal entry was taken today showing that Margaret McCaffrey is entitled to a dower interest in two small tracts of land in Leetonia. Margaret McCaffrey was married to James J. McCaffrey October, 1872, and in 1892 she was divorced from him by reason of his aggression, and was granted $700 alimony. He afterward married Ellen McCaffrey, the defendant in this case, who claims she loaned him the $700 to pay the first wife's alimony; that the property in Leetonia, which is all he had, is not worth more than $1,100, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to dower, but the court found otherwise, and the property will be sold at sheriff's sale and the plaintiff paid her dower interest.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1900.

Called on Mayor W. C. Davidson
Last Evening and Told How

Now Trying to Figure How Many
Rides to Pittsburg They Could Have Got For That Amount.

CHILDS' SQUABBLE WAS SETTLED

Frank Cato, John Aber and Frank Aull are a trio of East End young men that called on Mayor Davidson last night and furnished some cash to keep the police department of the city in good shape.

The three young men delight in jumping on freight trains even though they know that the railroad company have decided objections to such action and they are also in danger of losing their lives. Officer Wilson had the pleasure of seeing them take a free ride the other day and he notified them to call on the mayor and settle for their short jaunt. It cost them each $5.60 and they are now trying to figure how many rides to Pittsburg they could have had for the amount and have arrived at the conclusion that it is cheaper in the long run to ride on passenger trains and in the regular way.

Mayor Davidson yesterday afternoon investigated the Tony Vitalie-Otto Ivers case. The affair was only a children's squabble and Ivers had a lump on his leg, the result of being hit with a stone. The children were told to go home and be good.

There has been a great deal of complaint in regard to the school children making a play ground out of Fourth street, between Washington and Union streets, between bells. An officer will see that the small boys behave themselves hereafter. There has been no objection to the boys having legitimate fun and the complaints are only in regard to them annoying pedestrians and residents.

SOME IMPROVEMENTS.

The Seats in the First U. P. Church
Will Be Raised.

The trustees of the U. P. church, at a meeting last night, decided upon a number of improvements to be made on the building. The seats will be raised in the audience room. Chairman Kerr will have plans drawn and will receive bids for the work.

A SOCIAL SESSION.

Supreme President Entertained by the Local Order, Sons of St. George,
Last Evening.

The Sons of St. George held an interesting social meeting in their rooms last evening in honor of John Kenworthy, of Pittsburg, supreme vice president of the order. The program was composed of songs and recitations and an address by Mr. Kenworthy.

He Caught Suckers.

An East Market street fisherman a few days ago went to Fredericktown

for the purpose of catching bass. When he returned home he told his friends that he had been very successful and during his day's fishing had landed 12 bass. There came near being a grand rush for Fredericktown, but the fishermen discovered in time that those supposed bass were all suckers.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

Conservative and Well Posted Citizens
Commend the News
Review.

"Editor News Review—You have the warm thanks of very many good citizens for your condemnation of the men who are acting as graveyard ghouls in the vicinity of the old graveyard. I am in a condition whereby I am fully posted in regard to the matter at issue, and your denunciations should be even hotter than you have made them. Outside of the hauling away of gravel in defiance of law, and the consequent crumpling away of the embankment and the exposure of coffins and skeletons, the old graveyard has been made the headquarters of men and women who are apparently lost to all sense of shame or decency, and a detective, had he been assigned to quiet duty at the place or point designated, could easily have obtained proof of bad conduct on the part of some persons who hold their heads high in this vicinity, and an astounding phase of evil and evil practices would have been brought to light. My neighbors and myself are tired of this condition of affairs, and we appeal to Mayor Davidson for relief. It is easy to say, why don't you prefer charges in person, and then the authorities will act. Do you believe that you would delight in opening up such procedure? Possibly you might change your mind in this particular, were you cognizant of the facts in the case, and of the identity of the parties you would be compelled to do battle against. Mayor Davidson and Marshal Thompson can easily discover, if they so desire, that I have given no false alarm. The conduct of some of the well-known residents of East Liverpool has simply been abominable and outrageous in connection with this trysting place, and it is high time that a halt shall be called on all such people, no matter what their position in society may be. CITIZEN."

COUNCIL TO HOLD SECRET SESSION

To Hear and Consider Claims For Damages Presented by Property Owners.

WILL BE A WISE INNOVATION

As Hereafter the City Solicitor
Will Not Have to Give Away
the City's Side.

AND WILL DISCOURAGE SUITS.

The new council has adopted a system in regard to damage cases that will meet with the approbation of very many people in the city.

It will be the policy in the future to not make any of the damage actions public and all claims of the kind will be referred to the finance committee and action taken on them in executive session of the council.

By this method, should council determine to fight a claim, their side of the case will not be given to the plaintiffs before the trial and the public will know nothing of the opinion of the solicitor in the matter until after the case is disposed of in court. By the old method of disposing of damage claims he solicitor was compelled to tell his opinion of the case in open council, and if he thought the city had a weak case he said so and the plaintiffs got the benefit of his opinion. It is also thought the new rule will assist greatly in settling cases.

It is also argued that every time a damage claim against the city is filed and settled it encourages more claims to be filed and the city will get rid of many actions by settling the cases out of open council.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

More building is being done in the old Boyce orchard at present than in any other part of the suburb. The foundations for two houses to be built by C. E. Macrum have been finished. The 10-room residence of George Buxton, jr., is about completed, as is also the house being erected by Mr. Wright. The foundation for one of the small houses being built by Mr. Buxton is about finished and excavating has started on two others. Harry Harris started excavating for another six-room house this morning.

Yesterday morning Benton Grosshans received a rooster from a soldier stationed at the Jefferson barracks, in Missouri. It was sent there from a soldier now in Porto Rico and a friend of Mr. Grosshans immediately forwarded it to this city. It is a little larger than a Bantam chicken.

R. N. Logan Tuesday evening pleasantly entertained a number of his friends at his home on First avenue. Some of the young people who attended the affair missed the last car and walked to their homes down town, while some others waited on the midnight train.

There is a slight change for the better in the condition of Oscar Michael, of Mulberry street.

Councilman John L. Arnold, of First avenue, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the death of his mother at her home near Marietta. Old age was the cause of her death. The funeral services will be held Saturday and Mr. Arnold expects to leave this morning for the old home.

W. S. Snowden, a carpenter employed on one of the new houses being built in the Wise addition, had a piece of saw dust fly in his eye. A physician extracted the piece of wood, but the eye is swollen almost twice its normal size.

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. Spearhouse, of First avenue, is very ill, threatened with pneumonia.

Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derringer, is under the care of a physician.

The regular quarterly conference of the Second M. E. church will be held next Saturday evening. Rev. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the M. E. conference, officiating. A meeting of the official board of the church will be held the same evening.

Chief Morley spent several hours at the East End fire station yesterday afternoon.

Dick Richards, of Tarentum, has opened a tin and plumbing shop on First avenue. He is the first person to open this kind of a store in the suburb.

A fence is being built around the lawn in front of the office of the Laughlin pottery plant No. 2. This is the only pottery in the city with a lawn.

Mrs. Dodds, of Beaver, has commenced the erection of a seven-room frame dwelling at the corner of First avenue and Walnut alley. It will be modern in every particular.

The household effects of George Malin were brought to the suburb yesterday afternoon from the city.

Dr. W. E. Mowen and Robert McArthur, who have been in Cleveland for several days on business, returned to the suburb yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Gibbons and Edward Kennedy, of West End, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Oakland by Rev. Edwin Weary.

Johnson and Duff, the oil men, were in Chester on business yesterday.

One gang of the striking Italian workmen returned to work on the sewer today.

Jesse Allison, who is taking treatment for rheumatism at Mt. Clemens, Mich., is expected home in a few days.

Harper Ralston, of Chester, has announced his candidacy for assessor of Hancock county. He attended the meeting of the executive committee at New Cumberland yesterday.

Tom and J. C. Cunningham attended a sale near Fairview yesterday.

Five of the 30 houses of the Smith contract are under roof. They are located on Neptune avenue.

The Free Methodist church will be repapered next week.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Dick Johnson Tuesday evening. They will serve a dinner at the Rock Spring grounds in the near future. The next meeting will be at Mrs. S. F. Rose's in two weeks.

Robert Marshall commenced the erection of a residence on Indiana avenue yesterday.

Irwin Bros., who have the Wellsville sewer contract, were in the Southside on business yesterday.

The main line of the Panhandle railroad has been extended as far as the machine shop.

The brick wheelers working on the Taylor, Smith & Lee pottery went on a strike yesterday. They demand a raise of from $1.75 to $2 per day. The hod men and bricklayers were also obliged to quit work. About 12 men went out.

The Mechanics have issued invitations for a dance to be given in their hall on May 9.

The Chester base ball club at a meeting last evening, elected Edward Bennett manager and Erastus Phillips captain. A practice game will be played with a picked nine at Rock Spring park Saturday afternoon.

Miss Crill has been spending the week in Hookstown looking after matters connected with the new Free Methodist church being erected at that place.

PIONEER NEWSPAPER MAN.

Surprised at the Growth and Vim of East Liverpool as a Business Town.

Ex-Mayor John W. Northrup, of Salem, now right of way agent of the new telephone company, was in town yesterday on business and made the News Review a pleasant call. Mr. Northrup is an old newspaper man, having started the Salem Daily News, the first daily in that town. Later he was editor of the Salem Herald. He had not been to East Liverpool for several years and was astounded at the growth of the city. Said he: "You can't turn around a corner without running against a pottery, but they're mighty good things to have around." He said the appearance of the city impressed him with the correct belief that East Liverpool was one of the most hustling cities of its size anywhere.

The Stock Market Was, in a Large Measure, Confined to Sugar—The Other Features.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The stock market was in large part confined to Sugar Wednesday. Feverish and violent fluctuations kept affairs so unsettled that the operators hesitated to make ventures and the volume of dealings fell to small proportions.

Sugar was sold as low as 108 in the morning on supposed indications of fresh vigor in the trade war, and in the afternoon it got up to 115½. It closed at a net gain of 2½. The general market sold off after the opening in sympathy with the break in Sugar, which effectively dominated the tone of the market all day. When Sugar rebounded the room traders all turned to the bull side and kept prices up on a small volume of dealings. There were movements in special stocks designed to help on an advance, notably in Missouri Pacific, Pennsylvania, Wabash preferred and the grangers, but it was noticeable that the buying demands showed a marked falling off on any advances. Buying orders came in on the early declines, but later in the day the market continued dull.

The introduction in congress of a resolution for a committee to investigate the steel and wire episode and the New York Stock exchange may have had some influence in the late reaction. The announcement of a small engagement of gold for export to Europe had very little influence. The gold, which amounted to $500,000, is believed to be destined for Paris.

Discounts in London were slightly easier, but money in New York also showed further relaxation, loans for 60 to 90 days being quoted at 3 per cent, and four to six months at 3½ per cent on mixed collateral. The gain by the banks from the sub-treasury since last Friday already amounts to over $2,000,000. But the sub-treasury's debit balance at the clearing house fell below a million dollars for the first time in several weeks, except when some special operation intervened.

The bond market was rather quiet and irregular. Total bond sales, par value, $1,680,000.

United States 5s declined ¼ in the bid price.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The grain and provisions markets were strong Wednesday, the former helped principally by higher cables and a good export demand. Wheat closed ¾¢ higher, corn 1½¢ better, and oats ½¢ improved. The market for hog product at the close was from 7½¢ to 15¢ higher.

DOOMS MAIL TUBE SERVICE.

The Action of the House May Ruin It—Due to the Scandalous Charges Made by Mr. Moody.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The house put its heel upon the pneumatic mail tube service now in operation in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and if its action stands the whole service will be crushed out. The postoffice committee has recommended an increase of the appropriation for this service from $225,000 to $725,000. The proposed increase was attacked by the appropriations committee under the leadership of Mr. Moody (Mass.) with such vigor and success that in the end the house voted, 87 to 50, to strike the entire appropriation from the bill. Mr. Moody created a sensation by the manner in which he assailed the methods of the pneumatic tube company and the direct charge that a former member of congress, who was a member of the appropriations committee, had been a holder of the stocks and bonds of the company. He declined to disclose the gentleman's name.

He added to the scandal by charging that a block of stock had been sent as a New Year's gift to a near relative of another member of congress, but, to the credit of the member, he said the dishonoring gift had been returned to the sender by the next mail. Although the tube service was highly commended by other members, these revelations transformed the sentiment of the house, which has several times voted for the tube service, into a decisive majority against its continuation in any form.

AGREED TO HAWAIIAN BILL.

Senate Passed the Agricultural Appropriation Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—After a brief debate the senate agreed to the conference report on the Hawaiian civil government bill, the provisions relating to the right of franchise and imprisonment for debt having been amended to conform to the ideas of the senate. The agricultural appropriation bill was passed, carrying a little over $3,000,000. The Alaskan civil government bill was under consideration for an hour, but no

Sixteenth Century Apples.

Apples be so divers of form and substance that it were infinite to describe them all. Some consist more of aire then water, as sour puffs called Mala pulmonea; others more of water then wind, as sour Castaras and Pome waters. To be short, all apples may be sorted into three kinds, sweet, soure and unsavory. Sweet apples ease the cough, quench thirst, cure melancholly, comfort the heart and head, especially if they be fragrant and odoriferous, and also give a laudable nourishment. Soure apples hinder spitting, straiten the brest, gripe and hurt the stomach, encrease phlegm and weaken memory.

Sweet apples are to be eaten at the beginning of meat, but soure and tart apples at the latter end. All apples are worst raw, and best baked or preserved.

Philip of Macedonia and Alexander, his son, from whence perhaps a curious and skilful herald may derive our Lancashire men, were called Philomeli apple lovers because they were never without apples in their pockets. Yea, all Macedonians, his countrymen, did so love them that having near Babylon surprised a fruiterer's boy they strived for it that many were drowned.—Dr. Thomas Moffett in 1575.

Ruskin's Collars.

A prophet indeed has no honor in his own country. An English gentleman who had gone to Brantwood on an outing tour, finding himself in need of books in order to beguile a heavy hour or two, stepped into a bookstore of Ruskin's village and asked the lady attendant if she had any of the thinker's books. "Yes," she replied. "There were some, but they were not often asked for."

Having obtained the book he desired he asked her what she thought of the great critic and teacher. Her ideas of Ruskin's personality were very vague, however, and she excused her ignorance on the ground that the people about there did not seem to trouble much about him. As for herself, she only knew him as "the old gentleman who only had a clean collar once a week."

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END.

SOUTH SIDE.

More building is being done in the old Boyce orchard at present than in any other part of the suburb. The foundations for two houses to be built by C. E. Macrum have been finished. The 10-room residence of George Buxton, jr., is about completed, as is also the house being erected by Mr. Wright. The foundation for one of the small houses being built by Mr. Buxton is about finished and excavating has started on two others. Harry Harris started excavating for another six-room house this morning.

Yesterday morning Benton Grosshans received a rooster from a soldier stationed at the Jefferson barracks, in Missouri. It was sent there from a soldier now in Porto Rico and a friend of Mr. Grosshans immediately forwarded it to this city. It is a little larger than a Bantam chicken.

R. N. Logan Tuesday evening pleasantly entertained a number of his friends at his home on First avenue. Some of the young people who attended the affair missed the last car and walked to their homes down town, while some others waited on the midnight train.

There is a slight change for the better in the condition of Oscar Michael, of Mulberry street.

Councilman John L. Arnold, of First avenue, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the death of his mother at her home near Marietta. Old age was the cause of her death. The funeral services will be held Saturday and Mr. Arnold expects to leave this morning for the old home.

W. S. Snowden, a carpenter employed on one of the new houses being built in the Wise addition, had a piece of saw dust fly in his eye. A physician extracted the piece of wood, but the eye is swollen almost twice its normal size.

A small child of Mr. and Mrs. Spearhouse, of First avenue, is very ill, threatened with pneumonia.

Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Derringer, is under the care of a physician.

The regular quarterly conference of the Second M. E. church will be held next Saturday evening. Rev. Holmes, presiding elder of the Steubenville district of the M. E. conference, officiating. A meeting of the official board of the church will be held the same evening.

Chief Morley spent several hours at the East End fire station yesterday afternoon.

Dick Richards, of Tarentum, has opened a tin and plumbing shop on First avenue. He is the first person to open this kind of a store in the suburb.

A fence is being built around the lawn in front of the office of the Laughlin pottery plant No. 2. This is the only pottery in the city with a lawn.

Mrs. Dodds, of Beaver, has commenced the erection of a seven-room frame dwelling at the corner of First avenue and Walnut alley. It will be modern in every particular.

The household effects of George Malin were brought to the suburb yesterday afternoon from the city.

Dr. W. E. Mowen and Robert McArtor, who have been in Cleveland for several days on business, returned to the suburb yesterday.

Miss Lizzie Gibbons and Edward Kennedy, of West End, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents in Oakland by Rev. Edwin Weary.

At a meeting of the Republican executive committee held at New Cumberland Tuesday it was decided to hold the primaries on May 26. Senator and congressman will be voted for direct and allowed to choose their own delegates. Judges Campbell and Archer made addresses at the meeting.

Johnson and Duff, the oil men, were in Chester on business yesterday.

One gang of the striking Italian workmen returned to work on the sewer today.

Jesse Allison, who is taking treatment for rheumatism at Mt. Clemens, Mich., is expected home in a few days.

Harper Ralston, of Chester, has announced his candidacy for assessor of Hancock county. He attended the meeting of the executive committee at New Cumberland yesterday.

Tom and J. C. Cunningham attended a sale near Fairview yesterday.

Five of the 30 houses of the Smith contract are under roof. They are located on Neptune avenue.

The Free Methodist church will be repapered next week.

The Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Dick Johnson Tuesday evening. They will serve a dinner at the Rock Spring grounds in the near future. The next meeting will be at Mrs. S. F. Rose's in two weeks.

Robert Marshall commenced the erection of a residence on Indiana avenue yesterday.

Irwin Bros., who have the Wellsville sewer contract, were in the Southside on business yesterday.

The main line of the Panhandle railroad has been extended as far as the machine shop.

The brick wheelers working on the Taylor, Smith & Lee pottery went on a strike yesterday. They demand a raise of from $1.75 to $2 per day. The hod men and bricklayers were also obliged to quit work. About 12 men went out.

The Mechanics have issued invitations for a dance to be given in their hall on May 9.

The Chester base ball club at a meeting last evening, elected Edward Bennett manager and Erastus Phillips captain. A practice game will be played with a picked nine at Rock Spring park Saturday afternoon.

Miss Crill has been spending the week in Hookstown looking after matters connected with the new Free Methodist church being erected at that place.

PIONEER NEWSPAPER MAN.

Surprised at the Growth and Vim of East Liverpool as a Business Town.

Ex-Mayor John W. Northrup, of Salem, now right of way agent of the new telephone company, was in town yesterday on business and made the News Review a pleasant call. Mr. Northrup is an old newspaper man, having started the Salem Daily News, the first daily in that town. Later he was editor of the Salem Herald. He had not been to East Liverpool for several years and was astounded at the growth of the city. Said he: "You can't turn around a corner without running against a pottery, but they're mighty good things to have around." He said the appearance of the city impressed him with the correct belief that East Liverpool was one of the most hustling cities of its size anywhere.

Started for St. Louis.

Fred Gibbs was started this morning to his home in St. Louis, where it is thought he will regain his health. Dr. Hamilton collected $7.50 and gave it to him to assist him on his journey.

The Stock Market Was, in a Large Measure, Confined to Sugar—The Other Features.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The stock market was in large part confined to Sugar Wednesday. Feverish and violent fluctuations kept affairs so unsettled that the operators hesitated to make ventures and the volume of dealings fell to small proportions.

Sugar was sold as low as 108 in the morning on supposed indications of fresh vigor in the trade war, and in the afternoon it got up to 115 1/4. It closed at a net gain of 2 1/4. The general market sold off after the opening in sympathy with the break in Sugar, which effectively dominated the tone of the market all day. When Sugar rebounded the room traders all turned to the bull side and kept prices up on a small volume of dealings. There were movements in special stocks designed to help on an advance, notably in Missouri Pacific, Pennsylvania, Wabash preferred and the grangers, but it was noticeable that the buying demands showed a marked falling off on any advances. Buying orders came in on the early declines, but later in the day the market continued dull.

The introduction in congress of a resolution for a committee to investigate the steel and wire episode and the New York Stock exchange may have had some influence in the late reaction. The announcement of a small engagement of gold for export to Europe had very little influence. The gold, which amounted to $500,000, is believed to be destined for Paris.

Discounts in London were slightly easier, but money in New York also showed further relaxation, loans for 60 to 90 days being quoted at 3 per cent. and four to six months at 3 1/2 per cent on mixed collateral. The gain by the banks from the sub-treasury since last Friday already amounts to over $2,000,000. But the sub-treasury's debit balance at the clearing house fell below a million dollars for the first time in several weeks, except when some special operation intervened.

The bond market was rather quiet and irregular. Total bond sales, par value, $1,680,000.

United States 5s declined 1/4 in the bid price.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

CHICAGO, April 26.—The grain and provisions markets were strong Wednesday, the former helped principally by higher cables and a good export demand. Wheat closed 3/4c higher, corn 1 1/2c better, and oats 1/2c improved. The market for hog product at the close was from 7 1/2 to 15c higher.

DOOMS MAIL TUBE SERVICE.

The Action of the House May Ruin it—Due to the Scandalous Charges Made by Mr. Moody.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The house put its heel upon the pneumatic mail tube service now in operation in New York, Boston and Philadelphia, and if its action stands the whole service will be crushed out. The postoffice committee has recommended an increase of the appropriation for this service from $225,000 to $725,000. The proposed increase was attacked by the appropriations committee under the leadership of Mr. Moody (Mass.) with such vigor and success that in the end the house voted, 87 to 50, to strike the entire appropriation from the bill. Mr. Moody created a sensation by the manner in which he assailed the methods of the pneumatic tube company and the direct charge that a former member of congress, who was a member of the appropriations committee, had been a holder of the stocks and bonds of the company. He declined to disclose the gentleman's name.

He added to the scandal by charging that a block of stock had been sent as a New Year's gift to a near relative of another member of congress, but, to the credit of the member, he said the dishonoring gift had been returned to the sender by the next mail. Although the tube service was highly commended by other members, these revelations transformed the sentiment of the house, which has several times voted for the tube service, into a decisive majority against its continuation in any form.

AGREED TO HAWAIIAN BILL.

Senate Passed the Agricultural Appropriation Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—After a brief debate the senate agreed to the conference report on the Hawaiian civil government bill, the provisions relating to the right of franchise and imprisonment for debt having been amended to conform to the ideas of the senate. The agricultural appropriation bill was passed, carrying a little over $3,000,000. The Alaskan civil government bill was under consideration for an hour, but no

Sixteenth Century Apples.

Apples be so divers of form and substance that it were infinite to describe them all. Some consist more of aire then water, as sour puffs called Mala pulmonea; others more of water then wind, as sour Castaras and Pome waters. To be short, all apples may be sorted into three kinds, sweet, soure and unsavory. Sweet apples ease the cough, quench thirst, cure melancholly, comfort the heart and head, especially if they be fragrant and odoriferous, and also give a laudable nourishment. Soure apples hinder spitting, straiten the brest, gripe and hurt the stomach, encrease phlegm and weaken memory.

Sweet apples are to be eaten at the beginning of meat, but soure and tart apples at the latter end. All apples are worst raw, and best baked or preserved.

Philip of Macedonia and Alexander, his son, from whome perhaps a curious and skilful herald may derive our Lancashire men, were called Philomeli apple lovers because they were never without apples in their pockets. Yea, all Macedonians, his countrymen, did so love them that having near Babylon surprised a fruiterer's boy they strived for it that many were drowned.—Dr. Thomas Moffett in 1575.

Ruskin's Collars.

A prophet indeed has no honor in his own country. An English gentleman, who had gone to Brantwood on an outing tour, finding himself in need of books in order to beguile a heavy hour or two, stepped into a bookstore of Ruskin's village and asked the lady attendant if she had any of the thinker's books. "Yes," she replied. "There were some, but they were not often asked for."

Having obtained the book he desired he asked her what she thought of the great critic and teacher. Her ideas of Ruskin's personality were very vague, however, and she excused her ignorance on the ground that the people about there did not seem to trouble much about him. As for herself, she only knew him as "the old gentleman who only had a clean collar once a week."

DOG QUESTION IS A PUZZLER

Mayor Davidson Receives on an Average of Three of Four Complaints a Day.

ANOTHER GARDENDALE DOG

Causes Some Alarm and the People Want It Killed as Soon as Possible.

SMITH SAYS DISSECT ANIMALS.

The Gardendale people are still excited over the dog question and not a day passes that the mayor does not receive three or four complaints in regard to canines that are acting strange.

Last night a man named Shingleton said a dog belonging to a person named Caudles was acting strange and he wanted it killed. No action has been taken in this case, but the animal will be located as soon as possible. Councilman J. T. Smith thinks the dog should be penned up if it is not dead and developments awaited. If it is dead he thinks it should be dissected and the cause of the complaint discovered if possible. The mayor agrees with him, as he can see no other way to settle the question as to whether the animals are mad and he is getting awful tired of the numerous complaints that are being filed with him.

The afflicted animals seem to have no control over their hind quarters and often stop to take a rest. When they start off again they begin snapping and yelping, and naturally every person with whom they come in contact with give them a wide berth.

Last night Henry Welch made complaint against a Grant street dog owned by John Walters. Davidson killed it this morning.

It has been suggested that the only way out of the difficulty is for council to pass an ordinance compelling the people of the city who own canines to pay a license fee of $1 per year to the mayor and put a collar on the dog to which shall be attached the license number of the animal. Any dog found on the street without the collar shall be gathered in by a dog catcher and taken to city hall, where it shall be kept for 48 hours in order to give the owner time to appear and claim it. If he does appear in that time he shall pay a fine for permitting his dog to run loose or the animal shall be killed.

BUILDING INSPECTOR.

The Ordinance Died With the Old Council, But Will be Taken Up By the New.

The building inspector ordinance introduced by ex-Councilman Cain died with the old council, but it is expected that some member of the new council will take the matter in charge and bring it before the new council. The majority of the council think the inspector would be a good thing, but they are fogged as to where the money would come from for his pay.

FAR AWAY FROM HOME.

George Woolley, Who Came Here After Work, Died in Pittsburg Yesterday Morning.

A Pittsburg paper of last evening says:

"George Woolley, 60 years old, died at 10:40 a. m. today at the General hospital at Marshalsea. Woolley was a native of England and only arrived in this country January 25. He was a traveling salesman and had worked for several firms in England. After coming to this country he secured a position with a firm in East Liverpool, O. On April 17 Woolley was taken sick at the St. James hotel, at Ninth street and Liberty avenue, and was removed to the hospital at Marshalsea. He had $103, which he deposited with the department of charities to pay his expenses. A wife and son living in England survive him. Death was due to consumption and he was at the city home only eight days."

Rev. Edwin Weary, of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, left last evening for Pittsburg, where he conducted the funeral services over the remains this morning at 11 o'clock. Interment was made this morning.

Chicago Business Men Wont Employ Boys Who Smoke Them.

East Liverpool boys addicted to the habit of smoking cigarettes should take warning from the following from the New York Tribune:

"Merchants, manufacturers and professional men in Chicago who employ boys are combining to refuse applications for work from all lads under 16 who confess to the cigarette habit. Deceit on the part of the boy avails but little, since the fingers are carefully examined for the sign manual of the nicotine. As for the result, one boy recently admitted that at none of the 10 places to which he had gone for work in one week had the question as to whether he smoked cigarettes been omitted."

PRESIDENT MARSHALL.
Of city council, will confer a favor on conservative and law-abiding citizens
and position in calling a halt on the hauling away of sand and gravel from
the old graveyard site. Offenders, no matter who they be, must be taught
that they cannot so act with impunity.

"WORDS OF PRAISE."
Read article under above head in another column. The party signing
himself "citizen" is well and favorably known in East Liverpool, and he will back up what he asserts. The

law should cover, with a stern hand,
the outrages being perpetrated in and about the old graveyard.

A WISE RULE.
While it will deprive the newspapers of a good deal of news, the action of council in deciding to hereafter
consider damage claims against the city in secret session, is a wise one,
and one that should have been taken years ago. Heretofore the city sollicitor was compelled to instruct council regarding the city's side of damage
suits in open session, often when the person suing the city and his attorney
were present to profit by the premature disclosure of the city's defense.
This will now be stopped.

BROKE HIM DOWN.
One of the brightest boys in the city of East Liverpool, brainy and
intelligent, has been literally ruined
in consequence of the use of the accursed cigarettes, and has been compelled to leave our public schools.
The man who sells or gives your boy
a cigarette is a scoundrel, and the law should be invoked against him.
The legislators who permit the sale
of the nasty, vicious things, is either
a blockhead or a tool. It is high time that the parents of the land, and all
who are interested in our coming
young manhood, shall take a decided stand against the curse.

"GOD'S RESERVE FORCES."

The Above Was the Subject Discussed
by Evangelist MacGregor
Last Night.

A deeply interested audience was present at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. The evangelist portrayed, in eloquent and forcible language, the wonderful, limitless power of the Divine Being. Reference was made to Daniel, showing how he obeyed God,
fearless of results; his but to obey
and abide the consequences; and the Master made Daniel's record the
brightest on the pages of biblical history. A magnificent soldier in the army of the Lord. Many other instances were mentioned, showing how God has always stood by those who
trust and obey him.

today, but will address a meeting in
Y. M. C. A. hall the coming Saturday night, at 8 o'clock, and will speak in the same place next Sabbath, at 3
and 8 p. m. You are invited.

MONTHLY REPORT.

The Township Trustees Expended
$123.80 During the Month

The township trustees have not completed their monthly report and
it shows that they expended $40.95
of the county funds and $82.85 of the township funds. The money was principally expended in caring for the sick,
and the trustees expect a falling off
during May. In the month of April
last year they expended $80.52 county
funds and $131.88 township.

A Kansas Blizzard.
"When a real Kansas blizzard
starts," said a native of the state, "the snow at first is usually soft and fine
and comes down with an ominous
quiet. Then it increases in volume,
and a wild wind hurls it along. It is blinding and enveloping, and, aside
from being freezing cold, one cannot but lose his way. The storm some-
one of these blizzards comes up, the farmer who wants to get from his farmhouse to the stable or milkhouse
takes a cord and starts for the stable
or milkhouse, as it may be, even if it is only 50 yards off. He seldom makes it the first time, and the cord
is to keep him from getting lost and wandering in the snow. Sometimes
the people stand in the door and beat
a tin can for a signal to any one who may be out in the storm, but this is of little use, as the noise of the wind is so great that it drowns almost every other sound.

"I know of a case of a man who got
lost going from his stable to the house,
so swiftly and blindly did the storm
whirl down upon him. He stumbled
over the entrance to a cyclone cellar
and crawled in there and dropped the
door after him to keep out the snow.
The snow fell faster and faster and
buried the door so deeply that when it was all ended and he tried to open it
he found it impossible. His family searched the country around for him,
and it was not until the snow had melted and gone and some one happened
to go into the cyclone cellar that he was found there."—New York Tribune.

Vest Was Committed.

"I remember well once when Joe
Blackburn and I were on the same committee," said a senator. "It was during a Democratic administration,
and there had been a good deal of bother trying to get the secretary of agriculture to agree to a certain thing, and Blackburn had been sent to talk him over to the committee's plan.
In fact, the whole cabinet had been difficult to deal with. When Joe came back, several of us were assembled
in the committee room, among us Senator Vest, who was sunk dejectedly in the depths of an armchair. Some one asked:

"Well, Joe, did you succeed?"

"Succeed?" he echoed. Then he began to tramp up and down, fuming
and fussing. Finally he broke out:

"Of all the obstinate things in the shape of a cabinet officer I ever encountered, commend me to J. Sterling
Morton! Don't you agree with me,
Vest?"

"Vest roused up slowly and answered:

"I'm sorry, Joe, but I am committed to Hoke Smith."

"It was the funniest thing I ever heard," continued the senator, "and
our bill was never even reported."—
Saturday Evening Post.

What He Would Have Said.

In a complicated criminal case an old
land surveyor was subpoenaed to give
his professional opinion in the matter.
As the proceedings were about to begin he asked permission to say a few words, but was called to order sternly
by the judge, who told him to wait till
he was questioned. The case then proceeded. A host of witnesses were examined, and even the prisoner frequently was called upon to make a statement.

After a couple of hours the judge
said to the old surveyor, "Now, sir,
we shall be glad to hear what you have to say on the whole case."

The witness stood up and replied:
"I only wished to remark awhile ago
that I am quite deaf in my left ear and rather hard of hearing in the right. I was merely going to ask if I might be allowed to sit immediately in front of the witnesses and the prisoner. Up to now I have not heard a single word of the proceedings."—London Telegraph.

Sacrilegious.

An urchin in a country parish in Scotland, having been told by his parents to read a newspaper aloud to them, began to do so in the usual drawing manner of the parish school.
He had not proceeded far when his mother stopped him short, exclaiming:
"You rascal! Hoo dare ye read a newspaper wi' the Bible twang?"—

Spanish Proverbs.

Proverbs uncomplimentary to the fair sex are common in Spain. "A woman, like a pavement, should be well
trampled on to be kept in order." "A woman is like a candle. Twist her neck if you wish her to be good." "Beware of a bad woman, and do not trust
a good one." "Crying in a woman and limping in a dog is all a sham." "A cock crows on his own dunghill, but hens cackle everywhere" (this in reference to the supposed garrulosity and inquisitive disposition of the sex).
"Show me a magpie without a spot
and I will show you a woman without a fault." In English counterparts are
not wanting, for example:

A woman, a dog and a walnut tree—
The more you beat them the better they be.

Mothers-in-law and stepmothers
come in for a good deal of sarcasm.
Some of the proverbs in regard to them
will not stand translation. Of a man who is accounted lucky they say, "If
he fell from the roof of a house, he would fall on the top of his mother-in-
law."—Chambers' Journal.

The Arch Destroyer.

"He is a mean, sneaking, underhand
element, the moth is," protests
John Kendrick Bangs in The Woman's Home Companion. "Fire has a decent sense of the proprieties. Moths have none at all. When fire attacks you, it smokes and crackles and hisses and roars and lets you know in clarion
tones that it has come. The moth
steals upon you in the dead of night
and chews up your best trousers,
gorges himself upon your wife's furs,
tickles his palate with your swellest flannel golf shirt, munches away upon
your handsomest rug, punches holes
in your best sofa cushions with his tusks and then silently folds his tent
and steals away without so much as a
thank you for his meal. For unmitigated meanness commend me to the moth! Alongside of the moth and his nefarious work—even a book agent
pales into insignificance and an unpaid grocer's bill becomes an absolute pleasure."

Refrigerated Eggs.

Eggs become unwholesome when
kept in refrigerators. A fungus forms
in them which is easily found by the microscope, although it is not noticeable to the taste. The fungus constitutes a danger when we consider how many eggs are consumed by all classes
of society, and people of delicate constitutions ought to be particularly careful that they eat fresh and not kept
eggs.

What He Would Have Said.

In a complicated criminal case an old
land surveyor was subpoenaed to give
his professional opinion in the matter.
As the proceedings were about to begin he asked permission to say a few words, but was called to order sternly
by the judge, who told him to wait till
he was questioned. The case then proceeded. A host of witnesses were examined, and even the prisoner frequently was called upon to make a statement.

After a couple of hours the judge
said to the old surveyor, "Now, sir,
we shall be glad to hear what you have to say on the whole case."

The witness stood up and replied:
"I only wished to remark awhile ago
that I am quite deaf in my left ear and rather hard of hearing in the right. I was merely going to ask if I might be allowed to sit immediately in front of the witnesses and the prisoner. Up to now I have not heard a single word of the proceedings."—London Telegraph.

Spanish Proverbs.

Proverbs uncomplimentary to the fair sex are common in Spain. "A woman, like a pavement, should be well
trampled on to be kept in order." "A woman is like a candle. Twist her neck if you wish her to be good." "Beware of a bad woman, and do not trust
a good one." "Crying in a woman and limping in a dog is all a sham." "A cock crows on his own dunghill, but hens cackle everywhere" (this in reference to the supposed garrulousness
and inquisitive disposition of the sex).
"Show me a magpie without a spot
and I will show you a woman without a fault." In English counterparts are
not wanting, for example:

A woman, a dog and a walnut tree—
The more you beat them the better they be.

Mothers-in-law and stepmothers
come in for a good deal of sarcasm.
Some of the proverbs in regard to them
will not stand translation. Of a man who is accounted lucky they say, "If
he fell from the roof of a house, he would fall on the top of his mother-in-
law."—Chambers' Journal.

The Arch Destroyer.

"He is a mean, sneaking, underhand
element, the moth is," protests
John Kendrick Bangs in The Woman's Home Companion. "Fire has a decent sense of the proprieties. Moths have none at all. When fire attacks you, it smokes and crackles and hisses and
roars and lets you know in clarion
tones that it has come. The moth
steals upon you in the dead of night
and chews up your best trousers,
gorges himself upon your wife's furs,
tickles his palate with your sweetest flannel golf shirt, munches away upon
your handsomest rug, punches holes
in your best sofa cushions with his tusks and then silently folds his tent
and steals away without so much as a
thank you for his meal. For unmitigated meanness commend me to the moth! Alongside of the moth and his nefarious work even a book agent
pales into insignificance and an unpaid grocer's bill becomes an absolute pleasure."

Refrigerated Eggs.

Eggs become unwholesome when
kept in refrigerators. A fungus forms
in them which is easily found by the microscope, although it is not noticeable to the taste. The fungus constitutes a danger when we consider how many eggs are consumed by all classes
of society, and people of delicate constitutions ought to be particularly careful that they eat fresh and not kept
eggs.

They Won't Get Out That Injunction Against the Railroad Company For a Few Days.

On the East End Station Pending a Satisfactory Settlement of the Affair.

COUNCIL GETS A PETITION.

That injunction against the Pennsylvania company will not be taken out for a few days at least. Solicitor Gaston prepared the papers and was all ready to go ahead with the case when he was notified by several members of council to let the matter rest for a few days to see if an agreement could not be reached with the company. In the meantime work on the station has been stopped.

Yesterday afternoon a petition was circulated in the East End, asking council not to take out the injunction. The petitioners gave three reasons, and they are as follows:

First—That no depot site in the neighborhood is obtainable, adjoining the railroad company property.

Second—That the company propose to make a driveway connecting with the alley occupied by them, around the rear of their building, for the use of the public, so that traffic will not be in any way interfered with.

Third—Because the location of the station on the site referred to is a necessity to the industries there adjoining on which that part of the town depends for its prosperity and growth.

The petition was signed by the National China company, the Homer Laughlin China company, Abner Martin, Puritan Land company, W. H. Campbell, East End Pottery company, James A. Martin, B. F. Harker, H. N. Harker, D. B. Harker, George Buxton, J. J. Bell, W. E. Baird, Potters Mining and Milling company, N. G. Macrum, William Erlanger. The signers own all the property adjoining the site of the new station.

HOW TO CATCH A COLD.

The Various Ways in Which It May Be Accomplished.

The various ways in which a cold may be brought on are thus described by Dr. J. H. Kellogg: "A little knife blade of air blowing in through a crack in a window upon some part of the body will chill that part, and the blood vessels of that region will become contracted, affecting somewhere in the interior of the body an area in reflex relation with this portion of the surface of the body.

"For instance, the blood vessels of the skin of the top of the shoulders and the chest are associated with the blood vessels of the lungs, so that whatever happens to the blood vessels of the skin of the shoulders and chest happens also to the blood vessels of the lungs. If there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the back of the neck, there will be a contraction of the blood vessels of the nose and throat, and if there is a contraction of the blood vessels of the top of the shoulders and the shoulder blades there will also be a contraction of the blood vessels of the lungs. When the influence of the cold is continued, this contraction is followed by congestion.

"When one puts his hands into cold water for a few minutes, they are first pale and then red. This is reaction. The longer the application and the more intense the degree of cold the greater will be the contraction and the congestion. So if the back of the neck is exposed for a long time to the influence of cold one is likely to have a cold in the nose and throat. If the shoulder blades and the tops of the shoulders are exposed, one is likely to take cold in the lungs and suffer from congestion of the lungs. If the cold is long continued, it may cause not only a congestion, but an inflammation of the nose or the lungs.

"So if the bottoms of the feet become wet or chilled a weakness of the bladder may result if there has ever been a trouble there or a weakness of the stomach if there has been a catarrh of that organ."—Good Health.

BABY'S PRETTY CURLS.

Pulled Them Off in a Car and Embarrassed Her Mother.

A well dressed woman with a beautiful baby in her arms attracted the attention of all the passengers on a Germantown car. Every one was fascinated by the baby's pretty and snailing face and particularly by two golden curls which hung down her cheeks.

After awhile the child became nervous and began to tug at one of the curls which protruded from her hood. The woman, presumably her mother, quickly stopped her, but a few moments later she looked out of the window. No sooner was her face turned than the child seized her bonnet with both hands and pulled it off. It offered little resistance, but to the astonishment of every one on the car the curls came with it, and the supposed golden haired baby showed that in reality its head was without the semblance of a hair.

The child swung the bonnet to and fro and laughingly held it up for the inspection of the other passengers. It was almost a minute before the woman turned around. When she saw what the baby had done, her face flushed, and without a word she picked up the child and walked sedately out of the car. When last seen, she was trudging down Spring Garden street with the baby tucked under her arm like a sack of oats, but still holding tightly to the bonnet and cooing, "See my pooty hair?"—Philadelphia Times.

CHIMNEY FIRES.

Why Salt is Commonly Used to Put Them Out.

In accounts of chimney fires it is common to read that the fire was extinguished by throwing salt down the chimney. Salt is used because there is liberated from it when it comes into contact with the fire a gas that within an inclosed space like a chimney is very effective in extinguishing fire. The primary purpose in throwing salt or anything else down a burning chimney is to dislodge the burning soot, chimney fires being caused by the ignition of the soot clinging to the inside of the chimney. Salt is used for this purpose not alone because of its peculiar effectiveness, but also because it is something available for the purpose that can commonly be found at hand in a house. It is thrown down the chimney in such a manner that it will rattle down the sides and by its weight knock down the soot and sparks clinging to the chimney's insides.

A bucket of sand has been put to the same use with good effect, and sometimes a scuttle of coal has been poured down the chimney, the coal bounding about from side to side as it dropped and so doing its work effectively. Sometimes a brick is taken from the chimney itself and, tied to a clothes-line, is hauled up and down the chimney, with the same result. At the hearth below or at the bottom of the chimney wherever the sparks may fall there is stationed a man with a pail of water to put out whatever fire may drop. Water is not played on a chimney fire from a hose because it is not necessary, and the water would do more damage than the fire.

The damage caused by a fire in a chimney when it is confined there is nothing or next to nothing. Left alone, however, a chimney fire might work its way into a building and so prove destructive, and therefore slight as they may be in themselves or as they might be in their consequences chimney fires are always put out and commonly in the manner described.—Exchange.

EAGLES AND THEIR PREY.

A Giant Bird Whose Race Has Happily Become Extinct.

There is at the present moment at the Natural History museum a model of the skull of an eagle so gigantic that the imagination can scarcely fit it into the life of this planet at all.

The whole head is larger than that of an ox, and the beak resembles a pair of hydraulic shears. Unlike most of the giant beasts, this eagle, which inhabited Patagonia, appears from its remains to have differed little from the existing species. Its size alone distinguishes it. The quills of the feathers which bore this awful raptor through the air must have been as thick as a walking stick and the webs as wide as car blades. It would have killed and torn to pieces creatures as large as a bison and whirled up into the sky and dropped into the rocks the gigantic carapaced animals of prehistoric Patagonia as easily as a modern eagle of California does the land tortoise on which it feeds.

Even today there are few carnivorous animals, whether birds or beasts, which have so wide a range of prey as the eagles. Like the kinged dragons of old story, they can ravage earth, air and sea and feed promiscuously on the denizens of all three elements. From serpents on the burning desert to seals on the everlasting ice, from monkeys in the tropical forests to marmots on the Alpine slopes, from dead sheep on highland hills to peacocks in the Indian jungles, no form of fish, flesh or fowl comes amiss to them.

and the young eagle, driven by the inexorable law of his race from the home where he was reared, finds a free breakfast table wherever he flies.—Cornhill Magazine.

Easily Settled.

They fell into conversation on the avenue street car, as men will to pass away the time, and when one of them happened to mention he was from Pittsburg the other turned to him with: "Pittsburg, eh? Dear me, but now singular!"

"How do you mean, sir?" was asked. "Why, I was in Pittsburg 21 years ago and lost 10 cents in a street car. I was thinking of the incident just before you spoke to me. I suppose you couldn't inform me whether the money was ever found, could you?"

"Why, yes; I believe I can. I found a dime in a street car about 21 years ago and have been looking for the owner ever since. Here it is. It must belong to you."

"Thanks. You are an honest man. Here's 2 cents to reward you."

The Pittsburg man pocketed the reward as the other pocketed the dime, and then they closed the incident.—Washington Post.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers. But the endorsement of East Liverpool's people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of an East Liverpool citizen.

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting me, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; sometimes I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them, and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

There is at the present moment at the Natural History museum a model of the skull of an eagle so gigantic that the imagination can scarcely fit it into the life of this planet at all.

The whole head is larger than that of an ox, and the beak resembles a pair of hydraulic shears. Unlike most of the giant beasts, this eagle, which inhabited Patagonia, appears from its remains to have differed little from the existing species. Its size alone distinguishes it. The quills of the feathers which bore this awful raptor through the air must have been as thick as a walking stick and the webs as wide as car blades. It would have killed and torn to pieces creatures as large as a bison and whirled up into the sky and dropped into the rocks the gigantic carapaced animals of prehistoric Patagonia as easily as a modern eagle of California does the land tortoise on which it feeds.

Even today there are few carnivorous animals, whether birds or beasts, which have so wide a range of prey as the eagles. Like the kinged dragons of old story, they can ravage earth, air and sea and feed promiscuously on the denizens of all three elements. From serpents on the burning desert to seals on the everlasting ice, from monkeys in the tropical forests to marmots on the Alpine slopes, from dead sheep on highland hills to peacocks in the Indian jungles, no form of fish, flesh or fowl comes amiss to them.

and the young eagle, driven by the inexorable law of his race from the home where he was reared, finds a free breakfast table wherever he flies.—Cornhill Magazine.

Easily Settled.

They fell into conversation on the avenue street car, as men will to pass away the time, and when one of them happened to mention he was from Pittsburg the other turned to him with: "Pittsburg, eh? Dear me, but now singular!"

"How do you mean, sir?" was asked.

"Why, I was in Pittsburg 21 years ago and lost 10 cents in a street car. I was thinking of the incident just before you spoke to me. I suppose you couldn't inform me whether the money was ever found, could you?"

"Why, yes; I believe I can. I found a dime in a street car about 21 years ago and have been looking for the owner ever since. Here it is. It must belong to you."

"Thanks. You are an honest man. Here's 2 cents to reward you."

The Pittsburg man pocketed the reward as the other pocketed the dime, and then they closed the incident.—Washington Post.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

East Liverpool Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in East Liverpool.

Is not the testimony of strangers.

But the endorsement of East Liverpool's people.

That's the kind of proof given here.

The statement of an East Liverpool citizen.

Mrs. Edward Orr, of 220 Thompson street, says: "My sister, Mrs. Borland, of Pittsburg, while visiting me, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills so highly that I was induced to try them. I had severe attacks of kidney complaint; sometimes I was so bad I could not get up; many times my neighbors came and found me lying on the lounge suffering when I intended to do a big day's work. I was so miserable I could do nothing. After my sister told me of the pills I made up my mind to try them, and got a box at the W. & W. pharmacy. They did just what they claimed they would do—cured me sound and well in a few days. My little girl was feeling poorly and had a sallow complexion for some time. I gave her a few doses and after the treatment she felt splendidly."

HANNA MEN CHOSEN.

Administration Ticket Named at Columbus.

A BITTER FIGHT ON GROSVENOR.

Bushnell Then Tried to Prevent His Being Named as a Delegate, but Failed—Foraker, Nash and Dick the Other Delegates-at-Large.

COLUMBUS, April 26.—The Republican state convention here was of national importance. The delegates and alternates-at-large are close personal, as well as political friends of the president, and the platform is just as it came from Washington, with the addition of the anti-trust resolution and the omission of the Porto Rican resolution.

The ticket named was as follows: Secretary of State—Lewis C. Laylin. Supreme Judge—John A. Sharrick. Board of Public Works—Charles A. Goddard. State School Commissioner—L. D. Bonebrake. Dairy and Food Commissioner—J. E. Blackburn.

Presidential Electors-at-large—Colonel Myron T. Horrick, General W. P. Orr.

Delegates-at-large—Senator Joseph B. Foraker, Governor George K. Nash, General Charles Dick, General Charles Grosvenor.

Alternates-at-large—Hon. Charles Foster, Hon. Myron O. Norris, Hon. W. C. Brown, George A. Myers.

The above was the so-called "Hanna slate" on delegates and alternates-at-large, and it went through without any breaks. There was, however, opposition to Food Commissioner Blackburn because he was running for a third term and for other local reasons, and to General Grosvenor for delegate from the friends of ex-Governor Bushnell.

When former Governor Bushnell opposed the election of Hanna as senator three years ago, General Grosvenor wrote a letter to a former client, who was then an applicant for a pardon, and that letter was revived at this convention. Then there were others in the convention to whom the Bushnell men called attention to the fact that General Grosvenor was a delegate-at-large four years ago and that he had been a district delegate to national conventions ever since the Republican party had existed. At this convention they charged that he was more than the chairman of the committee on resolutions, that he had brought the platform with him, and had successfully resisted any material revision.

The efforts of the Bushnell men to substitute some one in place of Grosvenor made an unusually interesting scene. It was opened by Judge Gilbert H. Stewart, of Columbus, who had spent the night opposing General Grosvenor in the committee on resolutions, of which they were both members, but it reached its climax when J. Frank McGrew, ex-representative and son-in-law of former Governor Bushnell, was speaking on his amendment to strike out Grosvenor and insert Hanna. McGrew eulogized Hanna, whom he has heretofore opposed, and said the Democrats would make capital out of the action of the Republicans of the president's state if Senator Hanna was not made "one of the big four."

When Senator Hanna was finally called to the front of the platform, the speech of ex-representative McGrew caused the senator to proclaim emphatically, "What do I care what the Democrats say about me?" While the senator's speech was on local state affairs, especially on factional and personal preferences, it was delivered with more force and feeling than his address of the day before. In declining to be a delegate, he delivered a philippic against what he termed "expedients."

When Senator Hanna said he would not serve as a delegate there was a motion to strike out Grosvenor and insert Foster. The Bushnell men formerly had not been friendly to Charles Foster, ex-governor and ex-secretary of the treasury, but it was anybody to beat Grosvenor. Foster has in recent speeches made several thrusts at Hanna and Grosvenor, and when he stepped to the front of the platform he said he declined because he "would not want to break the excellent slate that had been brought to Ohio from Washington."

The resolution making Foraker, Nash, Grosvenor and Dick the delegates-at-large was offered by ex-Senator Massie, of Grosvenor's congressional district, and the Bushnell men charged that it was the Grosvenor plan to avoid balloting. As soon as this resolution was adopted, General Grosvenor offered a resolution just like it, by which the four alternates-at-large were also selected in a bunch, without any of the forms of presenting names or balloting.

General Dick and General Grosvenor

returned to Washington.

Governor Nash left for Boston and Senator Hanna for Cleveland. The latter will not leave for Washington until Saturday. The convention was unusually harmonious, with the exception of the personal fights made on Grosvenor and Blackburn, both of whom won.

Following is an abstract of the platform adopted:

The platform reaffirms at the beginning the declaration of principles made by the Republican party at St. Louis in 1866; declares that the Republican administration has restored prosperity to the country and that the United States is outstripping all the nations of the world in foreign trade. The resolutions endorse the "wise and patriotic administration of President McKinley, whose signal achievements in war and peace, in statesmanship and diplomacy, mark an epoch in the history of the nation, and whose brilliant successes, sacrifices and demands, in the highest interests of the country, the uninterrupted continuance through another term of his great but uncompleted work.

"Confronting unprecedented requirements at home and unexampled responsibilities abroad, he has met them with a courage, fidelity and strength which have given him an enduring place in the confidence and affection of his countrymen.

Universal confidence is declared to have been reawakened and prosperity unparalleled reestablished. The administration is declared to have fixed the gold standard upon firm foundations of law, and made the national currency larger in volume and sure in value, and "lifted the national credit to the highest plane any nation has ever reached." The platform continues:

"In the broader field of world duty and influence it has met an unavoidable war for humanity with unequalled vigor and success, has crowned the matchless triumph of our arms on sea and land with the courageous acceptance of its high and solemn obligations, has faithfully studied and sought equally the true honor of the nation and the greatest good of the peoples who have come under our flag, and has, through the wise use of expanded opportunity, led our country on pathways of greatness and renown.

"We reaffirm the principles in which the Republican party had its birth, and on which Abraham Lincoln was elected president, that the representatives of the people have full power over territory belonging to the United States, in harmony with and subject to the fundamental safeguards of our free institutions for liberty, justice and personal rights. We sustain the president and congress in exercising this power with due regard for the safety and welfare of the union, and with the most just, generous, humane and fraternal consideration for those over whom the authority of the nation is extended. We advocate for them free schools, full security for life, liberty and property, the most liberal measures and development of their agriculture and industry, and the largest degree of local self-rule for which they are fitted. We have faith in American patriotism, character and capacity, and we know that American government will extend the inestimable blessings of freedom, law and civilization to the peoples who are brought under our protection."

The "wisdom and the success with which President McKinley performed the duty imposed by the treaty of Paris," and the fortitude and heroism of the soldiers and sailors of the United States through whom it was performed, as well as the provisions of the treaty itself, are heartily approved. It is declared that sovereignty over the new possessions must not be repudiated, and that the "high purpose of its origin must be accomplished in the establishment of peace and order and the blessings of individual liberty among the people of the Philippine Islands."

Thanks and approbation are tendered to the Ohio delegation in congress, and legislation is favored looking to promotion of the United States merchant marine. The platform concludes:

"The Republican party of Ohio stands committed to legislative and executive opposition to the threatening combinations of capital that seek to restrict competition and stifle independent producers; we invite within our borders the capitalistic investments that are material to the industrial development of the state and the largest employment of labor, but we insist that injurious combinations shall be forbidden, and so-called trusts shall be so regulated from time to time and be so restricted to guarantee immunity from harmful monopoly and assure fair treatment and protection to all competing industries."

The platform strongly indorses the administration of Governor Nash and the last Ohio legislature, and declares for a uniform system of municipal government.

PLEDGED TO AID

QUAY'S RE-ELECTION.

Action Taken by the Pennsylvania Republican Conventional at Harrisburg—Elected Him as a Delegate.

HARRISBURG, April 26.—The Republican state convention cordially endorsed

the administration of President William McKinley and instructed the delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia to support his candidacy for re-nomination. The convention also declared in favor of the election of United States senators in the same manner that state offices are elected; endorsed Senator Penrose, the administration of Governor Stone and other state officials, and pledged "its hearty and cordial support of Colonel M. S. Quay for re-election to the United States senate."

The convention also nominated Senator E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and Galusha A. Grow, of Susquehanna county, and Robert H. Feederer, of Philadelphia, for congressmen-at-large. The endorsement of Colonel Quay was opposed by Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburg, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in the last legislature. Mr. Flinn explained that he was in sympathy with the platform in everything except this plank, and moved that it be stricken out. His motion was defeated, and the platform was adopted as reported from committee.

Those voting against Colonel Quay on the Flinn motion were the delegates from the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Allegheny districts; William M. Ely, of Bucks; Geo. W. Herne and James H. Smith, of Crawford; D. M. Phillips, of Greene; Robert H. Moore, Juniata; John Moiler, Lebanon; John D. Fornum, Daniel G. Leban and Stanley Finner, Luzerne; Johnson Muthersbaugh, Mifflin; J. H. Wagner, Northumberland; ten from Philadelphia, two from Warren, five from Washington, Charles P. Wolfe and John B. Anderson in Westmoreland and the five delegates in York. The delegates from the First and Second districts of Allegheny voted in the negative. Several delegates refrained from voting.

After roll call, Mr. Gilkison, of Bucks, was recognized. He nominated Henry W. Oliver, of Allegheny, for temporary chairman and W. S. Andrews and Charles A. Voorhees, temporary secretaries.

Mr. Oliver's mention of McKinley's name in his speech drew forth a hearty applause in spite of the feeling entertained for the president by Quay's followers, who charge him with the responsibility of Quay's defeat. Mr. Oliver's speech was rather lengthy, reviewing the successes of the Republican party and the present prosperous conditions, for which the party is directly responsible.

Later the organization was made permanent.

Mr. Durham presented and secured the unanimous adoption of the following list of delegates and alternates-at-large to the national convention and electors-at-large:

Delegates-at-large—Colonel M. S. Quay, of Beaver; John B. Steel, of Westmoreland; Frank Reeder, of Northampton; William Connell, of Lackawanna; B. W. Green, of Cameron; Charles A. Porter, of Philadelphia; Jas. Elverson, of Philadelphia; John E. Leisenring, of Luzerne.

Alternates-at-large—J. Preston Thomas, Chester; W. R. Rice, Warren; C. Barclay, Cameron; Edward A. Price, Delaware; M. E. Lilley, Bradford; W. C. Kreps, Franklin; Jesse L. Hartman, Blair; Dr. George Edward Reed, Cumberland.

Electors-at-large—Clarence Wolf, Philadelphia; Frank H. Buhl, Mercer; A. B. Roberts, Montgomery; W. C. Arnold, Clearfield.

The secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Hon. E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and he was declared the unanimous nominee.

Balloting then began for congressmen at large. Only one ballot was required, it resulting:

Feederer, 338.
Grow, 255.
Flood, 89.
Arnold, 40.

Feederer and Grow were declared the nominees. This ended the regular work of the convention, and Governor Stone then addressed the convention.

ALLEN O. MYERS' PREDICTION.

Declares Bryan Would Not Be Seated if Elected by a Million.

WICHITA, Kan., April 26.—Allen O. Myers, of Ohio, responding to a toast at the banquet of the Sunflower League, following William J. Bryan, created a mild sensation.

Mr. Myers said the country was "fast racing to destruction." Then, suddenly turning toward Mr. Bryan, the speaker exclaimed:

"You may be elected, sir, by 1,000,000 majority, but they will not permit you to take the presidential chair. Look at the fate of William Goebel. Men whose pastime is bribery find in murder an amusement. Ohio was bought in 1896, the country was bought; it will be bought again in 1900, and Mark Hanna's reward for it is a seat in the United States senate.

"The masses of the country will continue to permit the encroachments on the classes," concluded Mr. Myers. "un-

Convention of the Wisconsin Republicans Held at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, April 25.—The Republican state convention elected the following delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention, at Philadelphia:

Joseph B. Treat, of Monroe; H. August Lentke, of Milwaukee; Isaac Stephenson, of Marinette, and James H. Stout, of Menominee.

The convention was characterized by harmony throughout. Resolutions, endorsing both the national and state administrations, were unanimously adopted.

H. C. Payne will undoubtedly be chosen at the Philadelphia convention to succeed himself as national committeeman for Wisconsin.

PRESIDENT LEAVES TODAY.

He, With Mrs. McKinley and Party, Will Depart for Washington This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, April 26.—President McKinley, after a brief visit with his relatives in this city, returned to Canton. His car, the Olympia, was attached to the regular southbound train on the Valley road, leaving Cleveland at 3:25 p. m. The president will remain in Canton until 4 o'clock today, when, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley, he will start for Washington.

Mrs. T. Twing Brooks, of Sewickley, Pa., wife of Vice-President Brooks, of the Pennsylvania railroad, came here this afternoon to visit Mrs. McKinley, and will go to her home tomorrow on the presidential train. Captain and Mrs. Lafayette McWilliams, of Chicago, are coming here today to join the presidential party in the trip to Washington. Mrs. McWilliams is Mrs. McKinley's cousin. The special train will leave here about 4 o'clock this afternoon and will reach Pittsburg in time to connect with the regular Washington train. Mrs. McKinley seems to be greatly enjoying her visit here, and friends say she seems to be in better health than usual. She took several extended drives about the city today.

FATAL SHOT FIRED BY A NON-UNIONIST.

Killed One Man and Wounded Two Others in a Labor Riot at Chicago—Others Are Injured.

CHICAGO, April 26.—In a riot between union and non-union men, which occurred at Racine and Wellington avenues, one man was instantly killed, another severely wounded, and six others sustained slight injuries.

The Dead.

Peter Miller, shot through the head by H. C. Baster and instantly killed.

The Injured.

John McGuire, shot in the right arm and right cheek by H. C. Baster; injuries severe, but not fatal.

Edward Yarranton, cut on head with brass knucklers.

Benjamin Bernard, cut on head with brass knucklers.

William Pottinger, bruised about head and body.

Louis Jenkins, cut about face and head.

James Gibbons, bruised by being struck with a club.

All were arrested by the police with the exception of Gibbons, who made his escape.

The fatal shot was fired by Baster, who is a superintendent employed by the Baker-Vawter Printing company, at 1102 and 1103 Mariana street, a non-union concern. The bullets which struck McGuire were also fired from the superintendent's weapon.

The killing was the outcome of three months' trouble with striking workmen.

Carter Enroute to Prison.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Oberlin M. Carter, once a captain in the United States corps of engineers, was a passenger on a parlor car of the Pennsylvania railroad train No. 7, southwestern express. In charge of an armed guard he is being taken to the military prison at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

One New Case of Plague.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The surgeon general of the marine hospital service has received a report from Surgeon Carmichael, in charge at Honolulu, under date of April 9. He says that since his report of March 31 one new case of plague has been discovered. The victim was a white girl and the case was fatal. The prospects, Dr. Carmichael says, are encouraging.

Instructed for Bryan.

CLAY CENTER, Kan., April 26.—The Populists' state convention called to select 84 delegates to the national convention at Sioux Falls instructed the delegates to vote solidly for William J. Bryan for president.

The efforts of the Bushnell men to substitute some one in place of Grosvenor made an unusually interesting scene. It was opened by Judge Gilbert H. Stewart, of Columbus, who had spent the night opposing General Grosvenor in the committee on resolutions, of which they were both members, but it reached its climax when J. Frank McGrew, ex-representative and son-in-law of former Governor Bushnell, was speaking on his amendment to strike out Grosvenor and insert Hanna. McGrew eulogized Hanna, whom he has heretofore opposed, and said the Democrats would make capital out of the action of the Republicans of the president's state if Senator Hanna was not made "one of the big four."

When Senator Hanna was finally called to the front of the platform, the speech of ex-representative McGrew caused the senator to proclaim emphatically, "What do I care what the Democrats say about me?" While the senator's speech was on local state affairs, especially on factional and personal preferences, it was delivered with more force and feeling than his address of the day before. In declining to be a delegate, he delivered a philippic against what he termed "expedients."

When Senator Hanna said he would not serve as a delegate there was a motion to strike out Grosvenor and insert Foster. The Bushnell men formerly had not been friendly to Charles Foster, ex-governor and ex-secretary of the treasury, but it was anybody to beat Grosvenor. Foster has in recent speeches made several thrusts at Hanna and Grosvenor, and when he stepped to the front of the platform he said he declined because he "would not want to break the excellent slate that had been brought to Ohio from Washington."

The resolution making Foraker, Nash, Grosvenor and Dick the delegates-at-large was offered by ex-Senator Massie, of Grosvenor's congressional district, and the Bushnell men charged that it was the Grosvenor plan to avoid balloting. As soon as this resolution was adopted, General Grosvenor offered a resolution just like it, by which the four alternates-at-large were also selected in a bunch, without any of the forms of presenting names or balloting.

General Dick and General Grosvenor

returned to Washington.

Governor Nash left for Boston and Senator Hanna for Cleveland. The latter will not leave for Washington until Saturday. The convention was unusually harmonious, with the exception of the personal fights made on Grosvenor and Blackburn, both of whom won.

Following is an abstract of the platform adopted:

The platform reaffirms at the beginning the declaration of principles made by the Republican party at St. Louis in 1866; declares that the Republican administration has restored prosperity to the country and that the United States is outstripping all the nations of the world in foreign trade. The resolutions endorse the "wise and patriotic administration of President McKinley, whose signal achievements in war and peace, in statesmanship and diplomacy, mark an epoch in the history of the nation and whose brilliant successes and demands, in the highest interests of the country, the uninterrupted continuance through another term of his great but uncompleted work.

"Confronting unprecedented requirements at home and unexampled responsibilities abroad, he has met them with a courage, fidelity and strength which have given him an enduring place in the confidence and affection of his countrymen.

Universal confidence is declared to have been reawakened and prosperity unparalleled reestablished. The administration is declared to have fixed the gold standard upon firm foundations of law and made the national currency larger in volume and sure in value, and "lifted the national credit to the highest plane any nation has ever reached." The platform continues:

"In the broader field of world duty and influence it has met an unavoidable war for humanity with unequalled vigor and success, has crowned the matchless triumph of our arms on sea and land with the courageous acceptance of its high and solemn obligations, has faithfully studied and sought equally the true honor of the nation and the greatest good of the peoples who have come under our flag, and has, through the wise use of expanded opportunity, led our country on pathways of greatness and renown.

"We reaffirm the principles in which the Republican party had its birth, and on which Abraham Lincoln was elected president, that the representatives of the people have full power over territory belonging to the United States, in harmony with and subject to the fundamental safeguards of our free institutions for liberty, justice and personal rights. We sustain the president and congress in exercising this power with due regard for the safety and welfare of the union, and with the most just, generous, humane and fraternal consideration for those over whom the authority of the nation is extended. We advocate for them free schools, full security for life, liberty and property, the most liberal measures and development of their agriculture and industry, and the largest degree of local self-rule for which they are fitted. We have faith in American patriotism, character and capacity, and we know that American government will extend the inestimable blessings of freedom, law and civilization to the peoples who are brought under our protection."

"The wisdom and the success with which President McKinley performed the duty imposed by the treaty of Paris," and the fortitude and heroism of the soldiers and sailors of the United States through whom it was performed, as well as the provisions of the treaty itself, are heartily approved. It is declared that sovereignty over the new possessions must not be repudiated, and that the "high purpose of its origin must be accomplished in the establishment of peace and order and the blessings of individual liberty among the people of the Philippine Islands."

Thanks and approbation are tendered to the Ohio delegation in congress, and legislation is favored looking to promotion of the United States merchant marine. The platform concludes:

"The Republican party of Ohio stands committed to legislative and executive opposition to the threatening combinations of capital that seek to restrict competition and stifle independent producers; we invite within our borders the capitalistic investments that are material to the industrial development of the state and the largest employment of labor, but we insist that injurious combinations shall be forbidden, and so-called trusts shall be so regulated from time to time and be so restricted to guarantee immunity from harmful monopoly and assure fair treatment and protection to all competing industries."

The platform strongly indorses the administration of Governor Nash and the last Ohio legislature, and declares for a uniform system of municipal government.

PLEDGED TO AID QUAY'S RE-ELECTION.

Action Taken by the Pennsylvania Republican Convention at Harrisburg—Elected Him as a Delegate.

the administration of President William McKinley and instructed the delegates to the national convention at Philadelphia to support his candidacy for re-nomination. The convention also declared in favor of the election of United States senators in the same manner that state offices are elected; endorsed Senator Penrose, the administration of Governor Stone and other state officials, and pledged "its hearty and cordial support of Colonel M. S. Quay for re-election to the United States senate."

The convention also nominated Senator E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and Galusha A. Grow, of Susquehanna county, and Robert H. Feorderer, of Philadelphia, for congressmen-at-large. The endorsement of Colonel Quay was opposed by Senator William Flinn, of Pittsburgh, the leader of the anti-Quay Republicans in the last legislature. Mr. Flinn explained that he was in sympathy with the platform in everything except this plank, and moved that it be stricken out. His motion was defeated, and the platform was adopted as reported from committee.

Those voting against Colonel Quay on the Flinn motion were the delegates from the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Allegheny districts; William M. Ely, of Bucks; Geo. W. Herne and James H. Smith, of Crawford; D. M. Phillips, of Greene; Robert H. Moore, Juniata; John Moiler, Lebanon; John D. Fornum, Daniel G. Harley and Stanley Finner, Luzerne; Johnson Muthersbaugh, Mifflin; J. H. Wagner, Northumberland; ten from Philadelphia, two from Warren, five from Washington, Charles P. Wolfe and John B. Anderson in Westmoreland and the five delegates in York. The delegates from the First and Second districts of Allegheny voted in the negative. Several delegates refrained from voting.

After roll call, Mr. Gilkinson, of Bucks, was recognized. He nominated Henry W. Oliver, of Allegheny, for temporary chairman and W. S. Andrews and Charles A. Voorhees, temporary secretaries.

Mr. Oliver's mention of McKinley's name in his speech drew forth a hearty applause in spite of the feeling entertained for the president by Quay's followers, who charge him with the responsibility of Quay's defeat. Mr. Oliver's speech was rather lengthy, reviewing the successes of the Republican party and the present prosperous conditions, for which the party is directly responsible.

Later the organization was made permanent.

Mr. Durham presented and secured the unanimous adoption of the following list of delegates and alternates-at-large to the national convention and electors-at-large:

Delegates-at-large—Colonel M. S. Quay, of Beaver; John B. Steel, of Westmoreland; Frank Reeder, of Northampton; William Connell, of Lackawanna; B. W. Green, of Cameron; Charles A. Porter, of Philadelphia; Jas. Elverson, of Philadelphia; John E. Leisenring, of Luzerne.

Alternates-at-large—J. Preston Thomas, Chester; W. R. Rice, Warren; C. Barclay, Cameron; Edward A. Price, Delaware; M. E. Lilley, Bradford; W. C. Kreps, Franklin; Jesse L. Hartman, Blair; Dr. George Edward Reed, Cumberland.

Electors-at-large—Clarence Wolf, Philadelphia; Frank H. Buhl, Mercer; A. B. Roberts, Montgomery; W. O. Arnold, Clearfield.

The secretary was instructed to cast the vote of the convention for Hon. E. B. Hardenberg, of Wayne county, for auditor general, and he was declared the unanimous nominee.

Balloting then began for congressmen at large. Only one ballot was required, it resulting:

Feorderer, 338.
Grow, 355.
Flood, 89.
Arnold, 40.

Feorderer and Grow were declared the nominees. This ended the regular work of the convention, and Governor Stone then addressed the convention.

ALLEN O. MYERS' PREDICTION.

Declares Bryan Would Not Be Seated if Elected by a Million.

WICHITA, Kan., April 26.—Allen O. Myers, of Ohio, responding to a toast at the banquet of the Sunflower League, following William J. Bryan, created a mild sensation.

Mr. Myers said the country was "fast racing to destruction." Then, suddenly turning toward Mr. Bryan, the speaker exclaimed:

"You may be elected, sir, by 1,000,000 majority, but they will not permit you to take the presidential chair. Look at the fate of William Goebel. Men whose pastime is bribery find in murder an amusement. Ohio was bought in 1896, the country was bought; it will be bought again in 1900, and Mark Hanna's reward for it is a seat in the United States senate.

"The masses of the country will continue to permit the encroachments on the classes," concluded Mr. Myers. "un-

Convention of the Wisconsin Republicans Held at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, April 25.—The Republican state convention elected the following delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention, at Philadelphia:

Joseph B. Treat, of Monroe; H. August Leudtke, of Milwaukee; Isaac Stephenson, of Marinette, and James H. Stout, of Menominee.

The convention was characterized by harmony throughout. Resolutions, endorsing both the national and state administrations, were unanimously adopted.

H. C. Payne will undoubtedly be chosen at the Philadelphia convention to succeed himself as national committeeman for Wisconsin.

PRESIDENT LEAVES TODAY.

He, With Mrs. McKinley and Party, Will Depart for Washington This Afternoon.

CLEVELAND, April 26.—President McKinley, after a brief visit with his relatives in this city, returned to Canton. His car, the Olympia, was attached to the regular southbound train on the Valley road, leaving Cleveland at 3:25 p. m. The president will remain in Canton until 4 o'clock today, when, accompanied by Mrs. McKinley, he will start for Washington.

Mrs. T. Twing Brooks, of Sewickley, Pa., wife of Vice-President Brooks, of the Pennsylvania railroad, came here this afternoon to visit Mrs. McKinley, and will go to her home tomorrow on the presidential train. Captain and Mrs. Lafayette McWilliams, of Chicago, are coming here today to join the presidential party in the trip to Washington. Mrs. McWilliams is Mrs. McKinley's cousin. The special train will leave here about 4 o'clock this afternoon and will reach Pittsburg in time to connect with the regular Washington train. Mrs. McKinley seems to be greatly enjoying her visit here, and friends say she seems to be in better health than usual. She took several extended drives about the city today.

FATAL SHOT FIRED BY A NON-UNIONIST.

Killed One Man and Wounded Two Others in a Labor Riot at Chicago—Others Are Injured.

CHICAGO, April 26.—In a riot between union and non-union men, which occurred at Racine and Wellington avenues, one man was instantly killed, another severely wounded, and six others sustained slight injuries.

The Dead.

Peter Miller, shot through the head by H. C. Baster and instantly killed.

The Injured.

John McGuire, shot in the right arm and right cheek by H. C. Baster; injuries severe, but not fatal.

Edward Yarranton, cut on head with brass knucklers.

Benjamin Bernard, cut on head with brass knucklers.

William Potgetter, bruised about head and body.

Louis Jenkins, cut about face and head.

James Gibbons, bruised by being struck with a club.

All were arrested by the police with the exception of Gibbons, who made his escape. The fatal shot was fired by Baster, who is a superintendent employed by the Baker-Vawter Printing company, at 1102 and 1103 Mariana street, a non-union concern. The bullets which struck McGuire were also fired from the superintendent's weapon.

The killing was the outcome of three months' trouble with striking workmen.

Carter Enroute to Prison.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Oberlin M. Carter, once a captain in the United States corps of engineers, was a passenger on a parlor car of the Pennsylvania railroad train No. 7, southwestern express. In charge of an armed guard he is being taken to the military prison at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan.

One New Case of Plague.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The surgeon general of the marine hospital service has received a report from Surgeon Carmichael, in charge at Honolulu, under date of April 9. He says that since his report of March 31 one new case of plague has been discovered. The victim was a white girl and the case was fatal. The prospects, Dr. Carmichael says, are encouraging.

Instructed for Bryan.

Filipino Bolomen Dispersed by Americans.

EIGHTY OF THE REBELS KILLED.

Riflemen With the Native Force Unable to Shoot Straight — Cavalry Under Lt. Balch Wiped Out a Band of 50 Bolomen—Other Fights.

MANILA, April 26.—Officers who have arrived here from Nueva Caceras, province of South Camarines, bring details of a fight April 16, in which 80 Filipinos were killed. The American outposts reported 300 natives assembled three miles from the town, and General Bell sent three detachments of the Forty-fifth regiment, with two Maxims, who nearly surrounded the Filipinos, the majority of whom were armed with bolos.

The natives were armed with bolos and wore carabao hide helmets, coats and shields. The Filipinos were quickly put to flight, leaving the field strewn with armor. Their riflemen were unable to shoot straight, and the bolomen never got near enough to the Americans to do any execution. Therefore none of the Americans were wounded. Lieutenant Balch, with 20 cavalrymen from the Thirty-seventh regiment, cornered 50 bolomen in a river and shot every one, the bodies floating away. One soldier had his head struck off with a bolo.

General Bell's two regiments are hard worked in clearing the country. They meet with many small squads of Bolomen, and last week killed a total of 125. A squadron of the Eleventh cavalry is about leaving Manila on board the transport Lennox to reinforce them. The insurgents keep the province in a state of terror, and are wreaking vengeance on natives who trade with the Americans, burning many villages, including the populous town of San Fernando.

General Bell has issued a proclamation declaring that he will retaliate relentlessly unless this guerrilla warfare ceases and that he will burn all the towns which harbor guerrillas.

In a fight at Sorogon, Albay province, April 16, three companies of the Forty-seventh infantry, Captain Gordon commanding, routed a large force of insurgents, mostly bolomen, killing 53.

The plans of General Otis have not been announced, but it is understood he intends to sail on the Meade or the Grant early in May. He will be accompanied by his staff and will probably visit Hongkong and other ports.

EDUCATIONAL WORK

Under Consideration by the Delegates at the Ecumenical Conference Held in New York City.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, led the opening exercises at the session of the Ecumenical Conference. In Carnegie hall educational work was considered.

The Rev. Dr. W. T. A. Barber, head master of Ley's school, Cambridge, England, and William T. Harris, commissioner of education, both spoke at length on the subject, "The Place of Education in Christian Missions."

"The Necessity for Training Teachers" was discussed by the Rev. Dr. John Conklin, of the Bible mission school of Springfield, Mass.

These papers were followed by short discussions by those of the delegates who have been engaged in educational work at home and abroad.

Five sectional meetings were held. At the Union Methodist church the general topic was that of "Wider Relations of Missions," at the Madison Avenue Reformed church, the topic was "Vernacular Literature," at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, "The Native Church and Moral Questions" was discussed; "Normal Training" was the subject at the Central Presbyterian church, and the "Medical Training of Nations" was discussed at Chamber Music hall, Carnegie hall.

Last night two central meetings were held, one at Carnegie hall, as usual, and one at the Central Presbyterian church.

BOERS MAY ESCAPE YET.

They Fled After the Siege of Wepener—It Is Believed That the British Cannot Catch Them.

LONDON, April 26.—It is now apparent that the chances of Lord Roberts catching the retreating Boers in a net are very slender. The Boers have everywhere retired at the first presence of the British advance, and the hope that General Rundle would be able to induce them to remain at Dewetsdorp until they had been forced to fight or surrender has been disappointing.

No attempt was made to pursue the commandos retiring from Wepener after the siege was raised. Everything now depends upon the progress of General French's cavalry brigades, but they are entering a very difficult, hilly and practically unknown country.

The cavalry have already had a long march over heavy and sandy roads, and nothing is known regarding the condition of the horses. In any case, it is now a race between the Federals and the forces of General French and General Hamilton.

Three Burned to Death.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Three persons were killed and three severely injured in a fire early this morning in the six-story tenement, 74 Forsyth street. The dead are: Hannah Liebowitz, 13 years old; Amelia Liebowitz, 11 years old, and Joseph Liebowitz, 6 years old.

She was the fond mother of a fine baby. But it was a crying baby. She unclothed it and looked for pins. Nothing was hurting it. She looked to the baby's food. It was sweet and wholesome. But the baby still cried and wailed. Then she called the doctor. He examined the child and said "starvation."

"The child is crying for food." "But," said the mother, "it has all the food it will take." "The question of starvation" replied the doctor, "is not how much food is taken but how much is assimilated and goes to nourish the body."

Pain in the body is often only the outcry of starvation. You eat enough but the stomach is not doing its work, and the nervous system is starving. Put the stomach right and the pains will cease, together with the uncomfortable consequences of the condition. There is no medicine made which can equal Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the quickness of its action on the stomach. It cures diseases of the digestive and nutritive system, increases the action of the blood-making glands, and so induces a proper and perfect distribution of the necessary nourishment to blood and bone, nerve and muscle throughout the whole body. There is no alcohol, opium or other narcotic contained in "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., "as I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken it. Prior to September, 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September, 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September, 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

EIGHTY OF THE REBELS KILLED.

Riflemen With the Native Force Unable to Shoot Straight—Cavalry Under Lt. Balch Wiped Out a Band of 50 Bolomen—Other Fights.

MANILA, April 26.—Officers who have arrived here from Nueva Caceras, province of South Camarines, bring details of a fight April 16, in which 80 Filipinos were killed. The American outposts reported 300 natives assembled three miles from the town, and General Bell sent three detachments of the Forty-fifth regiment, with two Maxims, who nearly surrounded the Filipinos, the majority of whom were armed with bolos.

The natives were armed with bolos and wore carabao hide helmets, coats and shields. The Filipinos were quickly put to flight, leaving the field strewn with armor. Their riflemen were unable to shoot straight, and the bolomen never got near enough to the Americans to do any execution. Therefore none of the Americans were wounded. Lieutenant Balch, with 20 cavalrymen from the Thirty-seventh regiment, cornered 50 bolomen in a river and shot every one, the bodies floating away. One soldier had his head struck off with a bolo.

General Bell's two regiments are hard worked in clearing the country. They meet with many small squads of Bolomen, and last week killed a total of 125. A squadron of the Eleventh cavalry is about leaving Manila on board the transport Lennox to reinforce them. The insurgents keep the province in a state of terror, and are wreaking vengeance on natives who trade with the Americans, burning many villages, including the populous town of San Fernando.

General Bell has issued a proclamation declaring that he will retaliate relentlessly unless this guerrilla warfare ceases and that he will burn all the towns which harbor guerrillas.

In a fight at Sorogon, Albay province, April 16, three companies of the Forty-seventh infantry, Captain Gordon commanding, routed a large force of insurgents, mostly bolomen, killing 53.

The plans of General Otis have not been announced, but it is understood he intends to sail on the Meade or the Grant early in May. He will be accompanied by his staff and will probably visit Hongkong and other ports.

EDUCATIONAL WORK WAS DISCUSSED.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Bishop Dudley, of Kentucky, led the opening exercises at the session of the Ecumenical Conference. In Carnegie hall educational work was considered.

The Rev. Dr. W. T. A. Barber, head master of Ley's school, Cambridge, England, and William T. Harris, commissioner of education, both spoke at length on the subject, "The Place of Education in Christian Missions."

"The Necessity for Training Teachers" was discussed by the Rev. Dr. John Conklin, of the Bible mission school of Springfield, Mass.

These papers were followed by short discussions by those of the delegates who have been engaged in educational work at home and abroad.

Five sectional meetings were held. At the Union Methodist church the general topic was that of "Wider Relations of Missions," at the Madison Avenue Reformed church, the topic was "Vernacular Literature," at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, "The Native Church and Moral Questions" was discussed; "Normal Training" was the subject at the Central Presbyterian church, and the "Medical Training of Nations" was discussed at Chamber Music hall, Carnegie hall.

Last night two central meetings were held, one at Carnegie hall, as usual, and one at the Central Presbyterian church.

BOERS MAY ESCAPE YET.

They Fled After the Siege of Wepener—It is Believed That the British Cannot Catch Them.

LONDON, April 26.—It is now apparent that the chances of Lord Roberts catching the retreating Boers in a net are very slender. The Boers have everywhere retired at the first presence of the British advance, and the hope that General Rundle would be able to induce them to remain at Dewetsdorp until they had been forced to fight or surrender has been disappointing.

No attempt was made to pursue the commandos retiring from Wepener after the siege was raised. Everything now depends upon the progress of General French's cavalry brigades, but they are entering a very difficult, hilly and practically unknown country.

The cavalry have already had a long march over heavy and sandy roads, and nothing is known regarding the condition of the horses. In any case, it is now a race between the Federals and the forces of General French and General Hamilton.

THIS WEEK'S STORE NEWS.

CLEARANCE SALE

Ladies' Tailor Made Suits at $12.50 Each.

We are closing out all broken lines of Ladies' Tailored Suits this week that formerly sold at $22, $20, $18 and $16.50 at the uniform price of $12.50 each. About 75 in the lot, sizes 32 to 40, and come in Black, Navy, Gray, Tan and Brown. This is a chance for you to buy a strictly up-to-date Jacket Suit of superior quality (some of them taffeta silk lined throughout Jacket and Skirt) for a very low price. $12.50. A second lot of Suits that retailed at $15, $13 and $12.50, about 25 of these, to be closed at $10 each.

Lace Curtains and Draperies.

Have had a phenomenal sale of Lace Curtains the past two weeks that can only be accounted for, in having what the people demand, Large assortments, correct styles and reasonable prices. It will pay to buy your Lace Curtains here and buy them now when the assortments are large and choice. We show Curtains from 50c to $15 a pair, and plenty of them. Draperies from 12½ to $3.50 a yard. Will be pleased to show you these.

Showing of New Wash Goods.

Our Wash Goods Department is now complete with all the latest things in the market.

Dress Gingham at 7c, 10c, 12½c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c and 45c a yard. Domestic Dimities at 25c a yard.

Langtry Khaki, a new and popular wash fabric for Suits and Skirts, priced at 35c a yard.

White Goods.

Fine Imported White French Lawns, 42 to 48 inches wide, at 75c, $1 and $1.25 a yard. This is a beautiful material, shear and fine, soft silk finish, and will make an ideal summer dress.
